depicted the America of vesterday seen through the eyes of today, was a fixture of the art community for decades, with his final work coming in 2014.

The themes of nature, of home, and of times gone-by and our own fond recollections of them would go on to span across hundreds of paintings.

Certain themes would be revisited, often with a seasonal flair – the same setting would be revisited across all four seasons, own specific charm and beauty. His "four seasons" collections would become some of his most prized works.

Describing his art, he once noted "with all the traffic and busy hustle of daily life. I feel that if I can take someone back to a place that's full of peaceful memories, even just for 5 or 10 minutes, I've accomplished something."

He would travel around, visiting and working with galleries, studios, festivals, state
