

Plenty of snow to go around

Deer weren't deterred from the snow that fell on Montgomery Mill Road in the Gabe community last week.

Photo by Clevis Jeffries

Nature's beauty could be seen on Bluff Boom Road from Thursday's snowfall.

Snow fell on these horses on Liletown Road near Pierce in Green County last Thursday.

Colin Judd took advantage of the snow last week and rode his dirtbike.

Photos submitted

Photo by Clevis Jeffries

American Legion Park provided a picturesque scene from the recent snowfall.

This little lamb owned by Shawn Shuffett, thoroughly enjoyed the snowfall.

Deborah Judd-Nunn catches snowflakes with her grandson, Dezmond.

This heifer calf was born a few hours before the snow started to fall Thursday morning. The cow is owned by Wilburn Bonta and sons.