#11 • Mia Blaydes Freshman • 5-3 • Guard

Mia has a good understanding of the game and players look to her for help when they need to know where to go on plays. Mia has a good outside shot and should be a good free throw shooter even though she has struggled from the line early this season. Mia will be asked to be one of the primary ballhandlers and get players in the proper spots for the team.

#22 • Kennedy Jackson Freshman • 5-11 • Forward

Kennedy has really grown the last two years and is still growing into her body. Kennedy has the best post moves on the team and will become a great finisher as she gets stronger. Kennedy can step out and make the three-pointer and will be a tough match-up for post players. Kennedy is becoming a good rebounder and shot blocker but must learn to stay out of foul trouble.
