“I appreciated Jamie’s willingness to serve and I certainly want to thank Mike Mills for his years of service,” said Judge Frank.

(4) To pay off indebtedness on two 5-year old dump trucks, whereby the county acquiring ownership;

(5) Premium pay for EMS and county employees, amounting to a one-time payment of $1,000 for full-time and $500 for part-time employees;

(6) To give regular pay of 40 hours per week for county employee Slade Davis while attending CDL training.

(7) To purchase property at Ebenezer school at a cost of $2,000 for an approximate one-half acre lot to be used as a voting precinct;

“The Court had the opportunity to purchase a tract of land just in front of the old Ebenezer school at a very good price,” said the judge-executive. “The county will utilize this land as a voting precinct in the Pikeview community. We certainly appreciate the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church for allowing us to use their church during recent elections. However, with the purchase of this property, the county now either owns the property as a voting precinct or elections are held at public facilities such as fire departments, etc.”

The Court also acknowledged the budgets of the ambulance district and Green County Public Library for fiscal year 2022-2023.

The Green County Ambulance Service budget has total appropriations estimated at $1,885,500.

The Green County Public Library has total income and expenses amounting to $479,000.

A report was presented to Fiscal Court members regarding the rural secondary program, which is funded by motor fuel tax receipts.

Recommended improvements for 2022-2023 included the asphalt resurfacing of:

(1) KY 565 from KY 61 to the Taylor County line, a distance of 6.148 miles at a cost of $550,955;

(2) KY 323 beginning 0.06 miles east of Mac Pittman Road to the Taylor County line, a distance of 0.224 at a cost of $24,784.

Judge Frank gave updates on the Allen Ingram Road bridge work and Exie Lane.
