

Weather Record
Date	06-14	06-15	06-16	06-17	06-18	06-20
High	91.5	92	92.9	84.3	78.8	86
Low	75.2	70.5	74.4	69.8	56.6	50.6
Prec	0	0	0	0.4	0	0
Reporting period for each day runs from midnight to midnight. Statistics from Kentucky Mesonet's Bengal Station.

Lile honored as Exceptional Living Centers 2021 Shining Star

A red carpet was laid out for Kim Lile, the 2021 Exceptional Living Centers Shining Star. Green Hill Rehabilitation and Care staff filled the air with confetti after Lile's announcement as the winner.

CLEVIS JEFFRIES
STAFF WRITER

Green Hill Rehabilitation and Care employee Kim Lile has been selected as the Exceptional Living Centers 2021 Shining Star of the Year.

She is currently employed as a LPN/wound care nurse at Green Hill.

"We are so proud to honor Kim Lile as the Exceptional Living Centers Shining Star of the Year. Kim's more than 30 years of service are to be commended. Exceptional Living and the residents of Green Hill Rehabilitation and Care are fortunate to have Kim," said Tom Watts, Exceptional Living Centers President and CEO.

Lile was chosen for the honor during the months of March and August of 2021 at the local skilled nursing facility.

"When I started working at Green Hill in 2006, Kim Lile was a nurse I always looked up to. She was always respectful with me, but always on top of her game, making sure our residents were taken care of," said Jessica Sharpe, Green Hill Director of Nursing.

"Now, 17 years later, Kim is still a nurse I look up to. She wears many hats, helps in any way she can, and is truly a great asset to our building. I am thankful every day for nurses, co-workers, and friends like Kim Lile."

In order to be nominated for the award specific criteria must be met.

This included: a great team player, displays a positive attitude, demonstrates initiative and willingness to learn, exhibits leadership and dedication, goes above and beyond the everyday call of duty, and being employed with the company for at least one year.

The selection process to become the company's shining star is first chosen as a monthly shining star winner at the local facility.

Each monthly winner at an individual facility is nominated for the facility's Shining Star of the Year.

From there, each of the 20 Exceptional Living Centers Shining

Flowers were presented to Kim Lile by her husband Brent and son Dylan after being named the 2021 Exceptional Living Centers Shining Star.

Star of the Year is nominated for the company-wide Shining Star of the Year.

"I am extremely proud of one of our own being selected for this award. She represents the best of the best as an employee," said David Garst, Green Hill Rehabilitation and Care Executive Director.

In reference to winning the award, Kim Lile said, "I am truly love our residents and appreciative of this strive daily to give the recognition. However, best care possible."

I feel we have so many here at Green Hill that are much more deserving than I am. We all

See more photos on page 4B

Exceptional Living Centers President and CEO Tom Watts presents Kim Lile with a $2,000 presentation check for winning the company's 2021 Shining Star.

Greensburg Mayor John Shuffett gave congratulatory remarks during the recognition ceremony held at Green Hill Rehabilitation and Care June 14 recognizing Kim Lile as the company's 2021 Shining Star.

Photos by Clevis Jeffries