According to Rotary Club President, Justine Landrum, more than $2,275 was spent trying to help equip students for the first day of class.

"We really appreciate working in partnership with Kasey and Blake Gordon at Rusty River, as well as Shoe Sensation who helped tremendously with the shopping," Martel said. "We are extremely grateful and blessed," said Kaylea Stearman, who is in her first month as director of the Family Resource Center which works with students at Green County Intermediate School and Green County Primary School.

Kelli Henderson is the director of the Youth Service Center which serves students at Green County High School and Green County Middle School.

"We really appreciate the community support," Stearman said, "especially during difficult times."

Stearman also pointed out that they always need shoes at the schools, especially the schools that serve the younger students.

"It seems that their little feet grow so quickly that we always need tennis shoes," Stearman said.

Letter to the Editor Policy

The Greensburg Record-Herald welcomes letters on any topic of general interest from its readers. Controversial letters to the editor, which would merit a response from a candidate, will not be published in the last issue before the election, since the candidate would not have the opportunity to respond. All letters must carry the name, address and daytime telephone number of the writer, and the name of the writer will be published with the letter. Please address letters to Record-Herald, P.O. Box 130, Greensburg, KY 42743.
