

Benefit
Chandler Wright
needs a kidney,
community rallies

Fall Sports Schedules sponsored by Green Hill

Visit the Record-Herald at www.record-herald.com

50
Cents

Greensburg Record-Herald

Serving Green County Since 1895 2 Sections, 16 Pages No. 31 Wednesday, August 3, 2022

Green County Schools are back in session

Ms. Kim Allen has a sweet motto for the school year, encouraging students to make the very best of every situation. Ms. Kim also gifted each student a bottle of lemonade.

Superintendent of Green County Schools, Will Hodges, but most importantly— a dad, filled out his daughter's registration paperwork at the Green County Intermediate School Back-to-School Festival last week. The first day for Green County students is today, Aug. 3.

Special: Council takes a look at City wage ordinance

CLEVIS JEFFRIES
STAFF WRITER

The Greensburg City Council, in a special called meeting Thursday, July 28, approved the first reading of Ordinance Amendment No. 2022-0808 establishing the wage range of salaries and compensation for employees of the City of Greensburg. "With an increasingly competitive job market, our wage ordinance required a closer look," said Mayor John Shuffett.

Sunset 5K is this Saturday

BY SHELLEY BISHOP
R-H WRITER

"Seize the moment. Don't look beyond. Don't look back. Be in that moment, that day." --Lynne Givens. Former Green County High School teacher and volleyball coach Lynne Klingeman Givens left an impact on each life she touched. From her students, players, and coworkers to her family and friends, even opposing coaches on the court; Lynne left her very own legacy. To honor Givens' life and to raise money for Twisted Pink, an organization dedicated to finding a cure for metastatic breast cancer, the 5th Annual Sunset 5K will be held Saturday evening at the corner of Blowing Springs Road and Ebenezer Road at the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church. The race begins at 6:15 pm CT.

See Sunset 5K, page 6A

Preschooler Raelynn Davis, daughter of Kristen Connors, talks with instructional assistant Tashia Kessler in Lindsey Fields' preschool classroom during the Green County Primary School Back-to-School Festival Tuesday evening.

Rotary Club celebrates Christmas in July

DALE CURRY
STAFF WRITER

The Greensburg Rotary Club continued their benevolent giving by participating in a Christmas in July project with all four schools in the county. Shelby Haines, a member of the Rotary Club, was the project leader but it involved several Rotary Club members in the shopping and distribution of the clothing items. The Rotary Club purchases lots of clothing and gifts at Christmas but they realized that students need new clothes at times other than during the middle of winter. "We bought clothing items for 42 students," said Linda Martel, a Rotary Club member and also one of the shoppers. "We tried to buy an outfit as well as underwear and shoes and socks for the students that would otherwise not have a new outfit for the first day of school." The Rotary Club worked in conjunction with Rusty River Clothing in Summersville and Shoe Sensation in Campbellsville.

See Christmas, page 10A

Photos submitted

The Greensburg Rotary Club recently purchased clothes and shoes for students in the Green County Schools. Pictured are Kaylea Stearman and Angie Scott from the Family Resource Center, Rotary President Justine Landrum, and Rotarians Connie Judd, Marilyn Havener, Shelby Haines and Linda Martel, along with Kasey and Blake Gordon from Rusty River Clothing Company.