

Back-to-School events

Preschool student Oliver Riggle and sister Allis, a kindergarten student, along with their dad, Josh, observes the Back-to-School sign decorated with colorful balloons.

Green County Schools Transportation and Food Service personnel gave away various items during the Green County Primary School Back-to-School Fest Tuesday evening.

GCHS students were willing to wait in line to grab a parking pass for the upcoming school year at last week's Back to School Fest. Students could also pick up schedules and paperwork, tour the building, and talk with teachers at the event.

Greensburg Baptist Church graciously handed out bottled water and hot dogs at each school during last week's Back to School Fests. Bro. Todd Young, center, talked with another attendee last Monday night at Green County High School.

Grant Karnes speaks to GCMS students. Karnes' business, Sideline Apparel, had a drawing for a Dragon tshirt.
