

Sophomore Sarah Matney has gained confidence and consistency all season long. Matney goes for the kill here against Bardstown last week.

McKenna Pyles showed off her setting ability with this pretty back set to outside hitter Kaylee Judd in the Lady Dragons win over Bardstown last week.

Lila Stone blocked this Bardstown kill attempt in the Lady Dragons volleyball win last week. Green County defeated the Lady Tigers in three straight sets.

The Lady Tigers blockers were unable to stop Kaylee Judd's hit in last week's Lady Dragon win over Bardstown.

Photos by Shelley Bishop

Volleyball team had busy week

BY SHELLEY BISHOP
R-H SPORTS

The Lady Dragon Volleyball team has been busy over the last week or so. On September 9th and 10th, GCVB traveled to Taylor County for the Taylor County Throwdown. Over the weekend the Lady Dragons were runners-up in the silver bracket with an overall record of 3-2. The three wins were over Rockcastle County, Spencer

County, and host Taylor County (who defeated the Lady Dragons earlier in the season). Sophomore Kaylee Judd led the team in kills during the Taylor County Throwdown with 20 for the weekend. Judd leads the team in kills on the season. Last Tuesday, the Lady Dragons played host to the Lady Tigers of Bardstown. Green County won the Fifth Region match-up in three sets, 25-

22, 25-16, and 25-21. On Thursday night, Green County traveled to Caverna with plans of keeping their 18th District record perfect. The Lady Dragons easily did just that, putting away the Lady Colonels in three sets, 25-10, 25-7, and 25-5. By outscoring Caverna 75-27, Green County moved to 4-0 in district play and 16-8 overall. The Lady Dragons have a busy week this week with games on four consecutive night. Monday, Green County traveled to Adair County. Tuesday night, the Lady Dragons played host to Washington County. Tonight, GCVB travels to Bethlehem and then to Marion County tomorrow night. Next week, the Lady Dragons will round out district play as they will face Hart and LaRue Counties for the second time each this season.

Golfers compete at Heartland Conference

BY CLEVIS JEFFRIES
R-H SPORTS

The Green County High School Dragon Golf team competed in the Heartland Athletic Conference tournament, Wednesday, Sept. 14. Leading the way for the Dragon team was Devin Day, who shot an 81. Also scoring were: Brennan Jewell 85, Ayden Olson 86, and Joey Henderson 92. An additional result was Tanner Wil- lis, who carded a 98. Luke Coyle, of Taylor County, was the tournament medal- ist, shooting a 67. Making all-conference were: Coyle, Seth Smith, and Gabe Cole of Taylor County; Andrew Wilson of Washington County; and Blake Whorton of Hart County. Additional individual scores included: Seth Smith (TC) 71, Andrew Wilson (WC) 71, Blake Whorton (HC) 75, Gabe Cole (TC) 76, Charles Cox (TC) 78, Brayden Minor (HC) 79, Ben Sadler (TC) 79, Trey Marshall (MC) 81, Jacobi Summers (MC) 81, Kellen Thompson (HC) 82, Hayden Lan- ham (MC) 83, Jagger Kemp (AC) 83, Zach Sloan (HC) 83, Luke Gentry (HC) 86, Brady Hutchins (MC) 87, Gabe Weis (WC) 88, Cam Wright (WC) 88, Anthony Taylor (WC) 89, Brayden Spalding (MC) 90, Bode Richard (AC) 92, Kayden Greene (AC) 97, J.T. Loy (AC) 97, Sy Bramblett (WC) 97, and Ethan Froedge (AC) 99. Taylor County was the conference team win- ner, scoring 292 points; Hart County finished runner-up with 319. Other team scores were: Marion Coun- ty 332, Washington County 336, Green County 344, and Adair County 369. "The team didn't perform as well as they could have, and they know it," said Coach Nick Przybylek. "Al- though we didn't get the results we wanted, it's important for them to learn from their mis- takes and correct them so they can improve their game before the region tournament." For the ladies, Sa- mantha Abell, of Marion County, was the tournament med- alist, shooting a 78. Making all-con- ference were: Abell, Maddie Wiser, and Maddie Spalding of Marion County; Emma Smith of Hart County; and Kenzi England of Taylor County. Additional individ- ual scores included: Maddie Wiser (MC) 81, Maddie Spalding (MC) 90, Emma Smith (HC) 91, Kenzi England (TC) 94, Haley England (TC) 96, Saya Kato (MC) 96, Aubri Osborne (MC) 103, Anna Sims (HC) 105, Chloe Smith (TC) 107, Molly Myers (TC) 109, Brenley Jewell (GC) 109, Bevin Minor (HC) 116, Allison Shof- ner (TC) 117, and Kate- lyn Metcalf (WC) 140. Marion County was the conference team winner, scor- ing 345 points; Tay- lor County finished runner-up with 406. "Brenley showed great perseverance after getting off to a bad start," said Coach Tyler Sharpe. "It would've been easy for her to give up, but she kept grinding and had a very good back nine. As a coach that's all you can ask for, giving your all even when you don't have your best." The Lady Drag- ons played the Adair County Lady Indians at home Wednesday, Sept. 13. Green County results were: Brenley Jewell 51, Isabel Allen 74, and Hanna Moon 79. The Dragons played a tri-match, Wednesday, Sept. 13 at Caveland Country Club in Horse Cave. Top individual scores for Green Coun- ty were: Devin Day 40, Ayden Olson 41, Bren- nen Jewell 44, and Joey Henderson 46. Hart County was the team winner, scor- ing 151 points. Green County had 171, and Adair County 178.

Green County's Brennan Jewell putts the ball during conference play, Wednesday, Sept. 14 at Lebanon Country Club. He carded an 85 for 18-holes.

GCHS Dragon golfer Devin Day takes a mighty swing at the ball during conference play, Wednesday, September 14 at Lebanon Country Club. He led his team, shooting an 81 for 18-holes.

Lady Dragon golfer Brenley Jewell takes aim at the ball, playing in the Heartland Athletic Conference tournament, Wednesday, Sept. 14 at Lebanon Country Club.

Photos by Clevis Jeffries