Della Mae Cassady, 82

Mae Cassady, 82, of Ellettsville, Ind., passed away Friday, Nov. 18, 2022 at I. U. Health, Bloomington Hospital. She was born Oct. 29, 1940 in Exie, Ky., the daughter of the late Henry and Pearl Whitlock. Being a member of South Union Christian Church, Mae was a faithful woman who loved the Lord, her family, and community.

Mae was a founder and owner of Cassady Electrical Contractors, where Mae began working as an electrician in the early 1960s. Hard work led her down a path to many professional successes. Although she was of petite stature, her mode of operation was nothing short of being larger than life. Her work was her lifeblood, where she was driven to provide excellent service, instilling this work ethic in those who surrounded her. She was proud having her sons eventually join her with the company, and eventually her grandson. In 2014 the Bloomington Chamber of Commerce recognized her talent as a business leader by presenting her their coveted Lifetime Achievement award. She was the recipient of the State of Indiana Half Century award in 2017, presented to Mae by the Governor of the State of Indiana.

Mae's professional success provided a means to giving back to the community in many ways. She was involved in numerous civic organizations including Monroe County Foundation, Monroe County History Center, The Boys & Girls Club of Bloomington and Ellettsville, The Girl Scouts, and a Charter Member of the Monroe County Licensing Board. Her work on prestigious historic renovations such as the French Lick Hotel, the dome at West Baden, Central Indiana Methodist Church, Indianapolis, and the Monroe County courthouse lead to her involvement in Indiana Landmarks and Monroe County History Center.

The Canopy of Lights surrounding the Monroe County courthouse was a special delight for Mae each year. In 1984, the electricians of Cassady Electric, under her guidance, hung the first lights that would immediately become an annual tradition for the entire community.

Mae enjoyed working, reading, gardening, and loved Thanksgiving and Christmas. She also enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She will be deeply missed.

Mae is survived by her two sons, Mike Cassady and his wife Frances of Bloomington, IN, and Randy Cassady and his wife Tamby of Bloomington, IN; her daughter, Dellvanna Hambling and her husband Steve of Nashville, IN; two brothers, Randall Kessler and his wife Diane, and Danny Kessler and his wife Diane; a sister, Diane Commer and her husband Roger; four grandchildren, Jason (Michelle) Cassady, Samantha (Chris) Frank, Kristen Cassady, and Alisha Headley; and many other beloved family members.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Vernon E. Cassady; and two brothers, Kenny and Ralph Kessler.

Funeral services to celebrate her life will be held Monday, November 28, 2022 at 1:30 p.m. in Day & Deremiah-Frye Funeral Home, 4150 East Third Street with Pastor Jimmy Cain officiating. Interment will follow at Chambersville Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Sunday, Nov. 27 from 1 to 5 p.m. and Monday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be sent to the Boys & Girls Club of Monroe County or Monroe County Humane Association. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be made at www.DayDeremiah-Frye.com for the Cassady family.

FRIENDSHIP
Ancient wisdom for modern life
A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. Proverbs 17:17 (KJV)
Do you stick by your loved ones whatever the circumstance? You may not approve of their behavior, but if you are true to them, you will love them anyway. That is how Jesus treats us after all. He is a true friend and brother who loves us even when we're not loveable.
