A time of gathering

Dr. Angelia Bryant
Licensed Clinical Counselor

Thanksgiving is about Gathering. Thanksgiving is harvest time when crops are gathered and stored. We make multiple trips to the grocery store in a process of gathering. We gather recipes; we gather the fixings; we gather decorations and most importantly, we gather with our family.

Still, there is something magical when families gather. Do you know the magic I'm speaking about? Do you make the magic for your family? If not, then, it is time to start. The family is our source, our foundation. There is no one in this world who will love you like your family with all your flaws, warts and failures - because they just love you!

About that family magic, it is in the laughter and great food and the time you can only have with your family. And if you have lost family members, you can add some new ones. Family is defined by the people you love. Please invite someone to your family gathering that has no one. Adopt some people and invite them to gather with your family.

Let us always remember the magic of Thanksgiving for our great nation-

In the year 1621, the Pilgrims held their first Thanksgiving feast. They invited the great Indian chief Massasoit, who brought ninety of his brave Indians and a great abundance of food. Governor William Bradford and Captain Miles Standish were honored guests. Elder William Brewster, who was a minister, said a prayer that went something like this: "We thank God for our homes and our food and our safety in a new land. We thank God for the opportunity to create a new world for freedom and justice." - Linus' Thanksgiving prayer from Charlie Brown Thanksgiving. I speak that prayer for our nation today.

Remember and embrace, Matthew 18:19-22, "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. "For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst."

Love God and All People. Amen.
