Follow our olde house journey at: TheClintonCourier.net/our-olde-house

This past month, I convinced myself that I should not paint outside due to the excessive heat and incessant rain, but I thought that I could easily replace the mini blinds on a bedroom window. After all, this is a very simple task so what could possibly go wrong in a 150 year old house? As I was hanging the new blinds, I noticed that the outside window frame ...

Annual "Fall for Clinton" business decorating contest begins

The Clinton Courier

The Clinton Courier is, once again, sponsoring a citywide business "fall" decorating contest. All businesses in the city are encouraged to participate by decorating their façade, lawn, entrance and/or doorways with fall themes, such as scarecrows, pumpkins and festive wreaths.

While there is no cost to enter, businesses must complete an official Decorating Contest Entry Form by October 1 in order to be considered for one of the awards. Decorating must be completed by Tuesday, October 13, and judging will take place on October 14-16, with the winners announced on Facebook on October 18 and featured in the November 1 issue of The Clinton Courier.

Awards will be given for the most Fabulous Façade, Lavish Lawn, Enthralling Entrance and Dynamic Doorway.

Applications are available at The Clinton Courier office or on the website at www.TheClintonCourier.net. Call 601-990-9511 for more information.
