

Board of Directors

EXECUTIVE BOARD — The Obion County Fall Fest board for 2022 includes (front, from left) executive director Dana Pruitt, Nell Ray, Brooke Simmons, Olivia Riley, (middle) Penny Chesteen, Alicia Petty, Zoe Disney, Rhonda Richie, Ashley Phillips, (back) Janice Del Valle, president Mandy Hinson, Jenny Gillihan and Katelyn Kelly. Others are (not pictured) Sara Boyd, Angela Davis, Rachel Graves, Ann Joiner, Rick Larson and Kevin Runions.

It's important to us, as new leadership, to stay true to our roots. That's why changing our name from Obion County CornFest back to its original name of Obion County Fall Fest felt like the perfect place to start. Obion County Fall Fest will now be a celebration of harvest season, where we will also honor and support local organizations that combat hunger in our community. This will not only bring additional value to each event we host but will also bring awareness and support to local organizations that make our community such a wonderful place to call home.

We are so thankful for our volunteers and sponsors! Obion County Fall Fest would not be possible without all the volunteers who work hard to bring this festival to our area. We also couldn't do this without our generous sponsors who partner with us to make our events free or very affordable. Without their monetary donations we would not be able to have any of these events that we know bring unity and fellowship to Obion County.

We love the people of West Tennessee, and we love living here. We want to serve our community with the talents that God gave us by creating a festival where everyone is invited to celebrate the season and enjoy the fall harvest. We are also both very excited to play a small role in shining a light on organizations that help feed hungry people in Obion County.

Love,
Dana and Mandy

FIRST CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Proudly supporting
Obion County
Fall Fest!