

Fall Fest Volunteers

Obion County Fall Fest would not be possible without all the people who volunteer to plan and staff the events.

The 2022 edition of the annual festival is thanks in part to the following people.

Sara Boyd of Rives is co-chairman of the Fall Fest Family Day cake walk and auction. This is her seventh year in that role with the annual festival. She is an employee of Sullivan Dentistry in Union City and is married to Blake Boyd. They have two children, Reed Boyd and Rhett Boyd. She is a member of Troy First Baptist Church and is active with community involvement events through Sullivan Dentistry.

Penny Chesteen of Union City has been a volunteer for the annual festival for four years now. Each year, she has served as chairman of T-shirts and will once again take on the responsibilities of Fall Fest Family Day, held at the Obion County Public Library, where she is employed. She is married to Richard Chesteen. They have two children, Andrew "Drew" Chesteen and Angela Chesteen Stough; and three grandchildren, Brycen Little, Norah Chesteen and Maverick Stough. Mrs. Chesteen teaches painting and craft classes and leads the Around the Fireplace Book Club and Say It With Cards group at the library each month.

Angela Davis of Union City is in her second year as a volunteer for the annual fall festival. She is one of three ladies in charge of the Miss Obion County Fall Fest pageants and the Miss Fall Fest Volunteer and Miss Northwest Tennessee Volunteer pageants. She is employed at Union City Elementary School. She and her husband, Jay, have two children, 16-year-old Tucker and 10-year-old Ella Grace. She is a member of First Methodist Church in Union City; is an assistant cheer coach at Union City High School; and is a new teacher mentor at UCES.

Janice Del Valle of Union City is in her second year as a volunteer for the annual fall festival. She is serving as an assistant for Fall Fest Family Day. She is a retired master sergeant in the United States Air Force. She is married to Marcos Del Valle and has two children — 16-year-old Sarah Del Valle and 12-year-old Lindsey Del Valle. She is a member of Obion County Family and Community Education Clubs and Tri-County Homemakers, is a volunteer leader for the Obion County 4-H Club, serves as superintendent of the junior crafts department at the Obion County Fair and is a Second Baptist Church counselor-in-training.

Zoe Disney of Troy is chairman of the Fall Fest Idol musical competition. She has volunteered with the local festival for more than 10 years. She is employed at Kizer Pharmacy and is married to Brad Disney. They have two children, Jayda Disney and Aden Disney. She is on the Community Advisory Board at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Union City, Obion County Cancer Agency board (Obion County Hometown Walk of Hope) and Masquerade Theatre board.

Jenny Gillihan of Union City is over the vendors at Fall Fest Family Day for Obion County Fall Fest. This is her first year as a volunteer for the annual festival. She is regional director of Obion River Regional Library. She is married to Lee Gillihan and has two children, Jacob Virgin and Ella Virgin. She also leads the Historical Theater Academy at Discovery Park of America.

Rachel Graves of Kenton is in her first year of volunteering with Obion County Fall Fest. She will assist with An Evening in the Vines. She is employed at Jackson-Madison County General Hospital and is married to Scott Graves. She is active in Special Ops Xcursions and is a member of Cool Springs Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Ann Joiner of Union City is in her first year as a volunteer with Obion County Fall Fest. She will serve as an event volunteer. She is employed with the University of Tennessee System. She is married to Clint Joiner. They have two children, Elizabeth and George. She attends First Methodist Church and is a member of Discovery Park of America board and Union City Industrial Development board.

Katelyn Kelly of Troy is in her first year of volunteering with Obion County Fall Fest. She is co-chairing the Pride of Obion County Luncheon, which recognizes and honors outstanding leaders and local heroes for their leadership, community involvement and dedication to the growth and development and overall contribution to Obion County. She is a registered nurse at Adoration Health. She is married to Andrew Kelly and they have a 5-year-old son, John Michael Kelly. She is a member of Union City First Assembly of God, former president and lifetime member of Junior Auxiliary of Obion County, National Association of Junior Auxiliaries education committee member, Forget Me Not Foundation of Northwest Tennessee secretary, Carl Perkins Center board member, a fertility advocate and an American Heart Association life support instructor.
