

Rick Larson of Union City has been on the Fall Fest board for many years. He is employed with Union City Coca-Cola Bottling Co. and is co-chairman of the Union City Coca-Cola Medallion Hunt. He is the father of Jessica, Ricky, Savannah and AnnaRose. He volunteers at several schools and festivals.

Alicia Petty of Hornbeak is in her first year volunteering with Fall Fest. She is a Pride of Obion County Luncheon co-chairman. Among her duties are encouraging others to nominate someone in the county that goes above and beyond for the community, finding judges for the contest, promoting ticket sales, securing the venue, decorating and picking the best caterer for the luncheon. She is employed at the Tennessee Department of Health Regional Office and is a member of Hornbeak Baptist Church. She is married to Donald Petty and they have four children, Kenzie, 22, Dakota, 19, Garrett, 19, and Kolby, 16. Mrs. Petty serves as president of Junior Auxiliary of Obion County, which serves children in Obion County; is a member of the scholarship committee for National Association Junior Auxiliary, which reviews scholarship applications from all over the United States and awards scholarships to those who meet the criteria; is a WATCH 7 Coalition member for the northwest Tennessee region, which services the vulnerable population and those affected by any disaster here; and is a member of the state HealthCare Coalition that serves Tennessee.

Ashley Phillips of Union City is in her second year as a volunteer for what is now known as Obion County Fall Fest. She is one of three ladies in charge of the Miss Obion County Fall Fest pageants and the Miss Fall Fest Volunteer and Miss Northwest Tennessee Volunteer pageants. She is employed at Union City High School. She and her husband, Kyle, have two children, 8-year-old Charlie and 6-year-old Braxton. She is a member at Crosswind Church in Union City, where she volunteers in the kids' ministry. She is a lifetime member of Junior Auxiliary of Obion County.

Nell Garrigan Ray of Union City is co-chairman of the cake walk and auction event at Fall Fest Family Day. This is her seventh year volunteering. She is employed at Sullivan Dentistry in Union City and is married to Van Ray. She has one son, Justin. She teaches Sunday school at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and also volunteers with Chimes for Charity.

Rhonda Richie of Troy has been a member of the Fall Fest board for many years. She is employed at Union City Coca-Cola Bottling Co. and is in charge of the Union City Coca-Cola Medallion Hunt. She is married to Brent Richie and has two children, Katelyn and Kacey Kincade. She also volunteers for Obion County Hometown Walk of Hope and is a member of Mount Ararat Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Olivia Riley of Union City is in her second year as a volunteer for the annual festival. She is one of three ladies in charge of the Miss Obion County Fall Fest pageants and the Miss Fall Fest Volunteer and Miss Northwest Tennessee Volunteer pageants. She is employed at Miles and Bishop. She and her husband, Matt, have two children, 11-year-old Averil and 9-year-old Boston. She is a member of Crosswind Church, where she is a small groups leader for Crosswind Kids. Kevin Runions of South Fulton is in his fifth year volunteering for Fall Fest. He is co-chairing The Fall Fest Idol musical competition. He is employed at Titan Tire. He is married to Michelle Runions and has two children, Lydia Runions and Maya Runions. He is on the worship team at Crosswind Church.

Brooke Simmons of Woodland Mills is in her first year volunteering for the annual fall festival. She is chairing the Business After Hours event at the Obion County Chamber of Commerce, which honors the chamber's 100th anniversary. She is employed at the Obion County Chamber of Commerce and is married to Beau Simmons. She is a member of Main Street-Union City board of directors, which she serves as president; Carl Perkins Center board; Union City J'Cettes; and Junior Auxiliary of Obion County.

731-885-3005

SOLEIL
Garden Center & Florist

Josh McFarland Aimee Cheatham Ellie Lopez Emily Stokes Kim McBride Nikki Winchester Shane Dodson Allyson Crews

TCB

OBION COUNTY FALL FEST

The Citizens Bank

MEMBER FDIC

1304 W. Reelfoot Ave.
Union City, TN 38261

731-885-BANK
(2265)

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY