Little Miss Back the Blue presents thank you goodies to law enforcement officers

In recognition of National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day this past Sunday, January 9, Little Miss Back the Blue, MereJo Foster, delivered cookies and cinnamon rolls for each shift to the Seminole County Georgia Sheriff's Office and the Donalsonville Police Department.

MereJo also presented the staff with cards that read "Thank you for serving and protecting our community. I am proud to be part of your law enforcement family. Please stay safe!"

MereJo is the daughter of Tom and Carla Foster.

Happy 10th Birthday, Tylen

Tylen Dennis will be turning "The Big 10" on January 14. He says he is a big boy now, double figures.

Tylen will have cupcakes on Friday with his classmates. Afterwards he will spend the day at the movies (Scream is playing). Saturday he will be spending the day at Extreme Air with a couple of his friends.

Please come out and help Tylen celebrate his birthday. He will have a birthday cake afterwards at his favorite place in the world, Popeye's Chicken.

Tylen will be celebrating all month!

Love, Grandma, papa, my auntees and family

Thanks, Tylen Dennis
