Elizabeth Fendley Williford

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Fendley Williford, 87 of Fendley Dr., Tignall, Georgia were held on Wednesday, January 19, at 2 p.m. at Beulah Baptist Church with interment following in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Williford, daughter of the late George B. and Lessie Mae Turner Fendley was born on October 2, 1934 in Wilkes County, grew up in the Beulah community and graduated from Tignall High School in 1956. She had been employed by Thomson Company as a seamstress and later retired from the quality control department. For many years, she and her late husband, Ralph Williford lived in the Amity community of Lincoln County. Following his death, she moved back to her family home place in the Beulah community of Lincoln County. She loved her family, reading books and really enjoyed talking on the telephone. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her step-daughter, Joy Holz and brothers, John Bob Fendley, Floyd Fendley and Bennie Lee Fendley.

She will be greatly missed by her niece, Tracey Fendley Turner; great-nephews: David Turner and Cordell Turner; great-great nephew, Bradyn Turner along with her step-son, James Williford; and step-grandchildren, Nicole Partridge and Mahaley Parks.

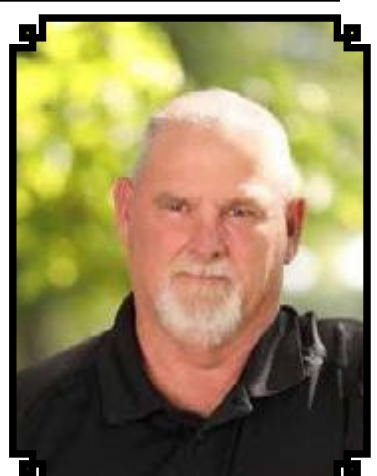

Beggs Funeral Home, Lincolnton is honored to serve the family of Mrs. Elizabeth Fendley Williford.

Gregory Mark Rogers

Graveside services for Mr. Gregory Mark Rogers, affectionately known as "Baby Greg", will be Friday, January 14, at Resthaven Cemetery with Rev. Chris Townsend officiating. Mr. Rogers, affectionately known as "Baby Greg", entered into rest on Tuesday morning, January 11, 2022.

Greg was born in Washington, to Marjorie Whittington Rogers and to the late Allen Rogers. He had lived in this community all of his life. He was employed most recently by Fern Acres Farms/Mike Thornton Trucking, had driven for them for over a year, and had driven a truck for Barnett Southern for over 20 years. He was a retired firefighter (24 years), and had been a deputy for the Wilkes County Sheriff Department for 34 years. Baby Greg loved to cook and would invite family and friends most every weekend for a feast. He loved to fish, enjoyed discussing glory days in Little League, and loved coaching Little League. He also had a love for old school soul music. He enjoyed serving his community in every way, and was known and loved by many. He was preceded in death by his brother, Gary Rogers and father in law, Ben Long.

Greg is survived by his wife, Allison L. Rogers, of Tignall; by one daughter, Jennifer Rogers (James), of Washington; sons, Joe Rogers, and Jack Rogers, both of Tignall; one grandson, Gil Davis, of Washington and by his "bonus son", Tyrone Maddox, of Washington; his mother, Marjorie W. Rogers, of Washington; two brothers, Clyde Rogers (Cissy), and Darrell Rogers (Gay), both of Tignall; sister-in-law, Kim Wynne (Mike); beloved mother-in-law, Jackie Long, of Tignall; by a number of nieces and nephews, and great nieces and great nephews.

Active pallbearers will be Scott Smith, Chris Echols, Chris Guin, Brett Thornton, Gaynor Hardy, Efreem Gunter, Brian Tench, and Jackie Graves.

Honorary pallbearers will be the Washington Fire Department.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Washington Fire Department.

Richard Glynn Broome Sr.

Funeral services for Richard Glynn Broome Sr. of Madison were held on Monday, January 10, at the Madison Baptist Church at 328 South Main St., Madison, Georgia. Internment followed at the Resthaven Cemetery at Washington, Georgia.

Mr. Broome Sr. passed away peacefully on January 5, after a long, courageous battle with cancer with his family by his side. He was 74 years old. Born at home in the Amity Community of Wilkes County, he was one of nine children of the late John L. Broome and Selma Graves Broome.

Glynn grew up in Washington and attended Washington Wilkes High School, graduating in 1965. After high school, Glynn attended Dekalb College for a short period of time then began his working career at the Colonial Grocery Store in Washington. In June of 1969, he married the love of his life, the former Carolyn Scott. Soon after, he and his wife moved to Madison where he became the assistant manager of Colonial Stores. For twenty years, he worked in the grocery business followed by a twenty-five-year career as a home service insurance agent first working with Independent Life followed by Gulf Life and then American General.

Glynn was a friendly and easy-going person that made many good friends during his working career. Upon retirement, he was often seen working in his yard or visiting with friends and neighbors. He enjoyed spending time with his family and looked forward to the summer beach vacations and the annual family reunions. Glynn was an avid sports fan, his favorite being football, who loved every aspect of the game. Prior to his illness, one of his most favorite pastimes was attending Friday night high school football games. For many years, local radio stations would depend on Glynn to report the final scores of the games that were played in all of the surrounding counties.

Glynn was a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. Until his health prevented him from doing so, he was a faithful member of the Madison Baptist Church and the Boxwood Garden Club.

Glynn is survived by his wife, Carolyn, of 52 years; daughter, Marie Bryans (Bill) of Madison; son, Richie Broome (Lisa) of Chapel Hill, North Carolina; brothers, Thad Broome (Ginny) of Rayle, Georgia and Frank Broome (Susan) of Macon, Georgia; sisters-in-law Jeanette Broome of Washington and Martha Broome from St. Stephens, South Carolina. He was known as "Papa G" by his grandson, Spencer Broome, and granddaughters, Camilla Bryans and Evelyn Broome. He is also loved by many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Doris B. Nash, and brothers: Lawrence Broome, Harold Broome, Charles Broome, Jean Broome, and Milton Broome

Glynn Broome was a good man, a loving and devoted husband and father, and a loyal and honest friend. He will be so missed by everyone who knew and loved him. May he rest in peace in the loving arms of our Savior, Jesus Christ.
