

THE MASON DISTRICT Hospital Auxiliary recently received a $1,000 donation from The Mason County Pork Producers. On hand for the presentation were (L to R) Darlene Urish, Judy Roch, Auxiliary President and Gay Ebken. The Auxiliary partnered with the Mason District Hospital Foundation to purchase new Smart IV pumps for Mason District Hospital. This donation will go toward that project and will be used by many departments in the hospital.

He added an effective toolbox includes relationships to allow long negotiations. Relationships are non-partisan.

"The Illinois Farm Bureau policy book allows us to work with both sides of the aisle effectively. They see Farm Bureau as good, trusted information," Duncan said.

No one can fix everything all at once, so focus on priorities instead of running around in circles. Stop worrying at times; you underestimate the muscle Farm Bureau has, he said.

A call to State Representative Norine Hammond (R-Macomb) is more impressive coming from you (her constituents), than a call from the state Farm Bureau in Bloomington, Duncan said.
