ARE THEY HOME ALONE?

Remember These Keys To Safety

Here are some very important things you should make sure your kids keep in mind when they're home with out you.

1. Keep all the doors and windows locked
2. Don't let them open the door for just any one! The only people allowed in are those that you say are OK.
3. They should know how to use the telephone and know where the list of emergency numbers is kept (fire department, police, doctor, etc.)
4. When answering the phone in your absence, children should never tell the person on the other end that you are

- not home. They should say that you're too busy to come to the phone.
5. Be sure your kids know your proper names, not just "Mommy" and "Daddy," in case they have to reach you.
6. Your children should know their own address and telephone number, in case of emergency
7. They should have a key to the house, or know where there is a spare one. They should know how the locks work, and be able to unlock them in case of emergency.
