Program introduces preschoolers to soccer

The Tuscola Soccer Club piloted a preschool soccer level group for Spring 2022. Micro Soccer is an introductory to soccer concepts for 3-5 year olds through field games and fun drills, in a safe environment for their age.

While there was no player-to-player contact, children enrolled in the program worked with a parent helper one-on-one to develop ball handling and learn aspects of game play.

The group was led by soccer board member Margie Carter, Coach Barb Smith (Arcola), and youth soccer volunteers Emma Carter and Mackenzie Carter, with help from Pamela Echols and Hartley Knight.
