

From My Amish Kitchen: Easter Brunch Recipes

For Your Favorite Spring Celebration
By DORIS YODER
Rainy, dreary, wet weather! At least there's no snow or ice. A good time to get some sewing done in between business. I was glad to get a quilt pieced ready to quilt, one with embroidered blocks. A long process but I enjoy it. Today I am baking cookies and preparing food for the Decatur Auto Auction. Fridays are very busy with delivering. Try these recipes for your Easter Brunch.

Breakfast Haystack Casserole
1 lb. bacon, fried and crumbled
8 eggs, scrambled
1 1/2 c. shredded cheddar cheese
12 biscuits, baked
1 lb. sausage gravy
1 can mushroom soup
1/2 c. chopped green peppers
3 lb. shredded hash browns Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Brown potatoes and put in bottom of 9x13 pan. Layer mushroom soup, bacon, eggs, peppers, cheese, biscuits, and sausage gravy on top. Bake until thoroughly heated. Delicious!

Ice Cream Pudding Pie
11/3 c. chocolate wafer crumbs
3 T. melted butter
1 (3.9 oz.) pkg. chocolate instant pudding mix
1 (3.4 oz.) vanilla instant pudding mix
1 1/2 c. milk
2 tsp. instant coffee granules
1 tsp. hot water
1 pint coffee ice cream, slightly softened
In a 9" pie plate, mix together the chocolate wafer crumbs and butter until crumbly; press into the bottom and up the sides of the pie plate. In a big mixing bowl, beat both pudding mixes with milk for 2 minutes, until thick and smooth. Dissolve the coffee granules in the hot water; add to the pudding mixture along with the ice cream and beat until well blended. Transfer this mound of bliss to the pie plate and spread evenly. Freeze several hours. Let the pie thaw about 10 minutes before cutting. If you'd like, you can drizzle each piece with marshmallow ice cream topping, sprinkle with chocolate shavings.

Delicious Breakfast Meal
2 c. flour
3 tsp. baking powder
1/4 c. shortening
1 tsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 c. milk
Mix dry ingredients, then cut in shortening. Add milk. Put in 9x13 pan. Bake at 450 degrees for 12-15 minutes. shredded potatoes 1 doz. eggs, scrambled
ham, cubed
bacon bits
green peppers
onions (optional)
cheddar cheese or Velveeta Fry potatoes in a little oil, salt and pepper until crisp and tender. Put on top of biscuits. Layer rest of ingredients in order given. Bake at 300 degrees until warm and cheese is melted. Serve with your favorite sausage gravy.

Baked Omelet Roll
6 eggs
1 c. milk
1/2 c. flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
cheddar cheese
onions
peppers
mushrooms
1 c. each sausage, ham or bacon (as desired)
Blend eggs, milk, flour, salt and pepper. Bake in well-greased jelly-roll pan at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from pan. Spread toppings and roll up. When ready to serve, place on a greased pan and reheat until cheese is melted. Onions, peppers, and mushrooms can be sauteed first.

Spiced Bacon Twists
1 c. brown sugar
2 Tbsp. ground mustard
1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/4 tsp. cayenne pepper

1 lb bacon, medium or thick sliced
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil. (This will catch fat that renders from bacon). Place with a wire rack on baking sheet. In a shallow baking dish, combine all of ingredients except bacon. Press each strip of bacon into mixture until coated on both sides. Twist each strip a few times and arrange on baking rack. Bake until bacon is browned and crisp enough to hold twisted shape, about 25-30 minutes. Cool slightly before serving.

1/4 c. mini chocolate chips
1 Tbsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Combine flour, sugar, baking powder, cinnamon, and salt. In another bowl, stir milk and coffee until dissolved. Add butter, egg, and vanilla; mix well. Stir into dry ingredients just until moistened. Fold in chocolate chips. Fill muffin cups 2/3 full. Bake at 375 degrees for 17-20 minutes or until finished baking. Cool 5 minutes. Remove from pan and serve with Expresso spread. Yields: 14 muffins

The Giving Place; Community Members Making a Difference

By Marcia Davis
Happiness and peace will come to earth only as the light of love and human compassion enter the souls of men. --David O. McKay
It is Spring! With Spring comes "newness"! Since the clothing room is now open to clients each Wednesday from 4-6 p.m. (along with the weekly food distribution), it's time to clear the winter racks of winter clothing to make way for spring and summer.

If you know of anyone needing winter items to store for next year, be sure to let them know. Each week the community continues to bless The Giving Place with donations of food and clothing. So far this year we have served 70 families/249 people/110 children/4 new families. With Spring comes a "new look" at The Giving Place in the form of new flooring. A HUGE Thank You to Neverman Floor Artisans, Inc. for their flooring donation AND labor! Be sure to find an opportunity to thank this Tolono business for their generous donation. Also, a HUGE Thank You to 10-yr-old Ezra Schultze, son of Kyle and Kim (Reis) Schultze, for a huge donation of food which was dropped off at The Giving Place. One of the requirements for Ezra's black belt graduation was to do a service project. He chose a food drive to benefit TGP. Food was collected at Leaders for Life Taekwondo Academy. Thanks, too, to all those who donated for his project. And, of course, thanks go to other donors of food, clothing, and monetary donations, as well as to the faithful volunteers who serve each week purchasing food, stocking shelves, hanging clothing, cleaning and organizing, and serving the clients who visit on Wednesdays. You are very appreciated for all that you do. In this time of world conflict, may self-seeking power yield to compassion, may war surrender to peace, and may that peace which Jesus offers be accepted into the hearts of all mankind. All acts of kindness are lights in the war for justice. --Joy Harjo

me, and I am with God, then the love of God dwells inside of me. Love is perfect and is not mean. Love heals. In short, mean people need God and love. Share God, and share love, and let's turn these mean people into good loving people. Pray for them. It's God's perfect plan. And if you are a mean person, knock it off. This reminds me of an old Irish blessing:

May those who love us, love us.
And those who don't love us, May God turn their hearts.
And if He doesn't turn their hearts, May He turn their ankles, So we will know them by their limping.
God bless you, spread the love, and be nice. Especially to my daughter.

him to change his way of thinking and start recruiting them. A good coaching strategy for sure, but one that lies in direct opposition to his initial sanctimonious refusal. Then there's the infamous (at least to me) American Express commercials, which many saw as an unfair recruiting advantage. "I don't look at myself as a basketball coach. I look at myself as a leader, who happens to coach basketball." This from a man who cusses more than a sailor on shore leave during the course of his games. (Trust me, as a former sailor on shore leave, I know a thing or two about cussin'!) Maybe all great leaders delve into working blue, but to me it seemed a bit hypocritical.

I'm going to close this by saying that Coach K and the Dukies have a 4-decade record that makes my orange and blue spirit envious. They've won championships, and as a person, his commitment to helping his fellow man, from his Emily K community center in Durham to his Fuqua/Coach K center for leadership at Duke, is enviable. He's by all means a great coach and a good man, but that doesn't mean that he's not gotten more than a few benefits of the doubt, in this year's tournament and in his past career. He's taken advantage of it and has given back. Which, while I'm still not a fan, is a good thing.
