RULES - Print the advertiser's name from each ad and the name of the team you think will win the game, from the games listed under the advertisements. Tie games will not count unless you provide a tie. Enter the total number of points you think will be scored between both teams in Game 1 in the box on the entry form. This will serve as a tie breaker with the closest number of points being named the winner. Entries must be mailed to the Kershaw News-Era at P.O. Box 298, Kershaw, SC 29067 and be postmarked by Friday. The contestant picking the most games correctly will be the winner or in the event of a tie the person with the closest points for the tie breaker will be selected. Each weekly contest is open to everyone except employees of this paper and their spouses. Only official entry blanks will be accepted. No photocopies of the entry form will be allowed. You must write down the advertiser's name in the space provided on the entry form or your entry will be disqualified. Only 1 winner will be selected each week. Late entries will be disqualified. One entry per person.
