

The Lake Worth High School Marching Band had a very special visitor at their last rehearsal of the season last Wednesday evening. Mayor Betty Resch stopped by the Lake Worth high school football field to wish the band good luck on their travels to Clearwater Beach Florida for the State Marching Band Championships. Mayor Resch brought along with her a donation to support the band boosters travel fund, took the time to give the band a motivational pep talk, and then stayed to watch their last rehearsal run through of their competition show.

LWHS Trojan Sound Band Clearwater Trip a Success

By Dr. Tiffany Cox
Director of Bands

Lake Worth High School Trojan Sound Marching Band traveled to Clearwater Beach last weekend to compete in the State Marching Band Championships. Thanks to the fundraising efforts of the Lake Worth High School Band Boosters and generous contributions from Mayor Betty Resch, Lake Worth High School Alumni, Lake Worth Beach community organizations and citizens, all 139 students were able to travel to and compete in the state semifinals. The band performed with unparalleled energy and brought home a ranking of ninth in the state! Now, the band will shift its focus to its indoor concert band season featuring two events in December on the Lake Worth High School campus. Save the date for December 1 and December 7 as the band will be showcasing their hard work and talents in two winter concerts. You can also see the Trojan sound in the Lake Worth holiday parade on Saturday, Dec. 9!
