Common Problems and Pests of Popular Garden Vegetables and How to Manage Them

Source: Ric Bessin, UK Extension Entomologist, Nicole Gauthier, UK Extension Plant Pathologist

Many Kentucky gardeners grow tomatoes, peppers, eggplant and potatoes for their own use or for sale in local farmer's markets. Pests are sometimes challenging to identify and even more challenging to manage.

The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, Food and Environment advocates for a sustainable approach to managing pests by combining biological, cultural, physical and chemical tools in a way that minimizes economic, health and environmental risks. A key part of that is to continually scout and monitor your garden to identify problems before they result in a significant loss.

The UK Cooperative Extension publication ID172—An IPM Scouting Guide for Common Pests of Solanaceous Crops in Kentucky—may help you identify common pests. The publication has a variety of photographs that show exactly what to look for in your crop.

Some of the items the publication covers include:

1. Physiological and nutrient disorders such as vivipary, gold fleck, catfacing, zippering, sunscald, blossom end rot, blotchy ripening, yellow shoulder, white core.
2. Insect pests such as aphids, leafminer, greenhouse whitefly, silverleaf whitefly, tobacco flea beetle, potato flea beetle, margined blister beetle, stink bugs, leaf-footed bugs, western flower thrips, two-spotted spider mite, Colorado potato beetle, tobacco hornworm, pepper maggot, beet armyworm, yellow-striped armyworm, tomato fruitworm, European corn borer.

3. Tomato, pepper, eggplant and potato diseases and management.

4. Herbicide injury.

5. A list of resources for further study.

Hidden Treasures with Love! REBEL HEARTS

God gave examples to follow, and examples not to follow. Judas Iscariot, a chosen Apostle of Christ, betrayed Christ for 30 pieces of silver. A religious council known as the Sanhedrin over seen the crucifixion of Christ, and brought persecution against the Apostles. Thus stoning Stephen and putting many christians in prison! All in the name of religion. But the main focus of this Treasure is the church people at Corinth. Paul in a letter to such religious rebels, said, 2 Cor 12:15-16 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

Paul explains the guile in 2 Cor 12:20-21 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults and lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed. Definition: lasciviousness, sexual behavior or conduct that is considered crude and offensive.

Paul was expressing great regret, and disappointment at the church people at Corinth. I feel that a religious generation today would make the church at Corinth look like singers in a heavenly quire! A generation that allows homosexual pastors, having priest molesting little boys, preachers hanging out at the oasis of nudity, fornication and lasciviousness going un-rebuked in church.

2 Tim 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears.

Rebel Hearts By Mike Willen with more love than you know!

Korah led an act of rebellion against Moses in the wilderness of Paran. The rebels contended that the entire congregation was qualified to perform priestly functions. As punishment for their insubordination, God caused the Earth to open and swallow the rebel hearts.

Nu 16:32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

Saul, The First King of Israel, was rejected by God for disobeying the command delivered him by Samuel, and Samuel said, 1 Samuel 15:23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

1 Samuel 31:6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

When we rebel against the commandments of God, we bring harm not only to our life, but harm also to others.

Jezebel, the Queen of Rebellion, tried to destroy all God's prophets while installing prophets of Baal. Jezebel tried to adorn herself to entice Jehu, but her servants obeyed Jehu's call to throw her from the window to the street where Jehu's horses trod her ground, see 2 Kings 9:30-37.

Jezebel is also a shadow of the mystery, whore of Revelations. The mystery whore that has taken rebellion to it's highest peak and I am so sad to say that religious rebellion has no knowledge of such mystery!

Rev 17:5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Part of the mystery of the whore of Revelations is how churches today have forsaken the old land marks of repentance and sanctification while committing spiritual hordoms, like a flock of chickens on an open range. Are you a rebel heart, or do you obey the Lord's command

John 8:11 Go and sin no more.

Rebel Hearts, By Mike Willen with love. Strait and narrow is paved with sincerity, but rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft. Thank you for reading Twin Treasures; Paid for by a good friend!

Triple Treasures with Love!

LIVING IN THE DARK SHADOWS OF REBELLION

Ecc 12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

A religious world leaving their duty undone will suffer judgment!

Ecc 12:14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

1 Cor 3:13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

In 3:19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

The dark shadows of rebellion began in the garden of Eden. Eve over shadowed by the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, she chose evil, and rebelled against God, thus corrupting Adam also. Rebellion has spread into every corner of the world like a dark plague to cover the land.

Isa 30:1 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin.

Sin + sin = Hell!!

Isa 5:19 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

The day is coming when those in religious rebellion will be begging for mercy in hell, and no mercy will be found. This Treasure is written to church people living in the shadows of rebellion.

Mt 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And the key verse: Mt 7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Triple Treasures is written to church people as a reminder, your stubbornness is as iniquity, and your rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft.

Living In The Shadows Of Rebellion, By Mike Willen with love! Thank you for reading Triple Treasures.
