SHARING PIE AND GOD'S WORD

Dawn Reed

I didn't want to share my pie. That sounds terrible, but it was blackberry-my favorite. While the Walker's had given it to my beloved for Pastor Appreciation, I knew it was actually for me. So, there I was, pie in hand and wanted to eat it all. It's one of those treasures from heaven I only get a few times of year. I planned to enjoy every single morsel.

I had divvied it up in my head. I could eat one piece of pie for supper, one for breakfast the next day. Another for that day's supper.

Eating a whole pie though? By myself? That would be stingy. I weighed my options. The girls at work would love it. They had never tasted this heavenly delight. It would be such a blessing to all of them. Knowing it was the right thing, I determined to share it the next day. I still cut out two large pieces to go keep. Didn't want to go completely crazy.

They loved it and moaned while eating each bite. Good food is always better shared. If I kept it only for myself, I would have gotten a belly ache.

There's something else I never ever want to be stingy with: God's Word. I want to share it. I need to. Yet when the opportunity comes, I sometimes get scared; my heart races. Here I stand, holding the Words of Life, and shaking in my Crocs. If I keep it to myself, it changes only me. If I share it, it can change lives-the world even. How do I get life changing words into the hands and hearts of others-even if I'm nervous?

I need something to bridge the gap, so I make Bible verse cards. (They're printed on cardstock.) Joshua 1:9 is my favorite to share: "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you..." Who doesn't need strength and courage? Bible verse cards get God's Word into the hands of the lost, downtrodden, troubled, and it can make a difference. Isaiah 55:11 reminds us that God's Word will not return empty, but will accomplish His purpose. That means every time we share Scripture God can use it.

God's Word changes lives-even more than the Walker's blackberry pie. Sharing pie is good but the very best thing to share is the gospel.
