

Green County Middle School observed Homecoming last week during the football game against Russell County. Winners for homecoming Princess include Raylen Davis who tied for first runner-up and escorted by Chance Stone, Princess Emilee Davenport, escorted by Bryce Brockman, last year's Princess Scout Brockman who was escorted by Brayden Davenport, and Alivia Sidebottom, who tied for first runner-up and was escorted by Braxton Judd.

Photos by Dale Curry

Emilee Davenport was crowned Green County Middle School Princess during the GCMS Homecoming celebration last week. Placing the crown on her is last year's Princess Scout Brockman. Davenport represented the 7th Grade.

GCMS

GREEN COUNTY MIDDLE SCHOOL

Green County Middle School's 8th Grade members of the football team were recognized in the game against Russell County last week. On the front row are Avery Shuffett, Hunter Majecic, Paxton Bloyd, Quentin Anderson, Elijah Bishop, Cale Kessler, Peyton James, Mason Collins and Blain Bailey. On the back row are Byron Calhoun, Chandler Taylor, Andrew Fields, Mason Dixon, Brayden Davenport, Carter Wright and Grady Shuffett.

Alivia Sidebottom, Ava Kate Sprowles and Nicolette Rich are the 8th Grade members of the GCMS cheerleading squad this year.

Elijah Bishop intercepted this pass to stop the Lakers who were closing in on the end zone.

GCMS quarterback Paxton Bloyd evades the defense to gain yardage against Russell County.

Quentin Anderson is brought down by the Russell County defense by the use of a facemask penalty.

The offensive line has the responsibility of protecting the quarterback and also opening up holes for the running backs.

Seventh grader Kylee Hargan gets set for the shot against Russell County last week.

Molly Dixon gets the layup against Russell County. The 8th grade team opened up a 26-0 halftime lead to put the game out of reach.

Carly Goff plays tough defense on the inbounds play against Russell County. The 8th Grade team won 33-7.