Established in 2023, Green River Band provides a variety of genres, but primarily perform popular country and southern rock songs. You may notice familiar faces as all members are from Columbia, KY and were all raised in the Green River area. Come join Green River Band at the 2023 Cow Days Festival!

ONE SHOT JOHNNY - 3:00-4:00

Formed in 1997, south Kentucky trio One Shot Johnny are International Blues Challenge veterans with semi-final appearances in band, CD and solo categories. Guitarist, vocalist and songwriter Randy Colvin cites many influences on the band's music from blues icons like T-Bone Walker, Freddie and BB King to Allman Bros, Tommy Castro, Tab Benoit and Ronnie Earl. The band's stable of original material runs the gamut - shuffles, boogie, jump and slow blues, rock and jazz-flavored efforts. Joe Shirley(bass) and Jeremiah Kelly(drums) work almost as a single unit and the band regards dynamics as its fourth member. The band has self-released seven albums of mostly original material over their 25 years together, with their 2009 release Times Like These going to the semi-final round in the IBC's Best Self-produced CD category. In addition to playing in major regional blues festivals around the region, the band has performed in The International Blues Challenge in Memphis twice and proceeded to the semi-finals in 2018.

JOHN MOUNTJOY & STREETCATS - 4:30-5:30

John Mountjoy & The Street Cats are a blend of new age acoustic and contemporary singer-songwriter style music. The 4-piece group have developed a signature sound that stands out from the masses by creating distinctive music that is influenced by old school rhythm blues, 90's grunge, and traditional Appalachian folk. The band is comprised of two married couples, south-central Kentucky locals John & Stasi Smith Mountjoy and Mike & Tiffini Scherbing. Their unique brand of entertainment fuses John's impressive guitar picking, songwriting, and vocals with a unique rhythm section; a smooth bass line accompaniment from Mike, keep-you-on-your-toes percussion switch-ups by Tiffini— cajon, shakers, tambourines, bass jug, washboard, & spoons to name a few. They are highlighted by Stasi's fiddle & harmonica melodies and vocal harmonies. While the group is newly formed, they mesh so well that you would never guess it. They all have a passion for music that surpasses any amount of experience garnered from time playing together.

DONAVAN HOWARD AND THE HOMBRES 6:00-7:00

Donovan Howard is a singer songwriter from Eastern Kentucky steeped in traditions formed from music created within his small rural community over the past 100 years. He has written and recorded four solo albums to date as well as several singles and is constantly performing and writing new material. In 2022 Donovan met the father son duo of Mike & Wade Hardwick while hosting an mic night in Danville Kentucky. The three hit it off and felt chemistry between them. With Mike on bass guitar and Wade playing harmonica Donovan taught himself to play drums with his feet while playing electric guitar and singing. The trio has now performed dozens & dozens of shows together and just released their first of 5 singles to drop in 2023. You can find Donovan Howard now playing solo and with his trio " The Hombres" Learn more about "The man from Kentucky"
