

Clinton Arrows sign to play football at next level

Special to The Clinton Courier

Jordyn Battee recently signed a letter of intent to play football at Hinds Community College. The QB was named to the Region 2-6A All Region Team his senior season and was named as the 2022 Comeback Player of the Year. Battee is also a member of the Clinton High School MHSAA 6A State Championship Track and Field team. Jordyn Battee is the son of Kristen Battee and Rico Robinson.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Jacquavyian Carter recently signed a letter of intent to play football at East Central Community College. The three-year linebacker was named to the Region 6A second team his junior year. Jacquavyian Carter is the son of Shunkellius Patton.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Running back Jakobe Calvin recently signed a letter of intent to play football at Hinds Community College. A four year-starter, Calvin was selected as first team All-State and second team All-Gridiron. Jakobe Calvin is the son of Tamela Calvin.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Christian Washington recently signed a letter of intent to play football at Copiah Lincoln Community College. The defensive end made the most of his junior and senior seasons as a member of the Arrows' defense. Washington is also a member of the back-to-back Clinton MHSAA 6A State Championship Basketball team as well as the National Honor Society and Anchor Club. Christian Washington is the son of Latranio Kennell.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Kenneth Andrews recently signed a letter of intent to play football at Copiah Lincoln Community College. The defensive lineman led the D-Line in tackles and blocked field goals. Andrews is also a member of the Clinton High School MHSAA 6A State Championship Track and Field team. Kenneth Andrews is the son of Rose and Rodney Brown-Joiner.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Cameron Williams recently signed a letter of intent to play football at Hinds Community College. A four-year starter, Williams was selected to participate in the 2023 Mississippi/Alabama All Star Game. Cameron Williams is the son of Alix and Charles Williams.