

Kiddie Parade Makes It Fun For All Ages

It's already implied by the title, but this is a miniature parade focused on the kids. Anyone is welcome to participate, and parents can certainly accompany their little ones throughout the route.

Make it your own by dressing up in costumes, painting faces, wearing goofy hairstyles, etc. There are no requirements or specifications. Participants also have the option of using or even decorating strollers, wagons, trikes, pedal cars, and things of that nature.

The Kiddie Parade takes place on Friday morning at 10:00 a.m. The Kiddie Parade route starts at the library parking lot, goes down Front Street, and ends at The Old Depot. The children will be given a treat at this time. All children should be picked up by their parents at this location.

Kiddie parade is sponsored by Midwest Bank.

SPUD JOKE

Why did the sea monster eat twelve boats carrying sacks of potatoes?

Answer:

Because nobody can eat just one potato ship.

SPUD-FACT

Average American eats 138 pounds of potatoes each year. Of that number, half is fresh and half is industrially processed (chips, dehydrated potato, canned potato).
