

Ready For An Exciting Night Of Music?

From the first note to the last encore, the energy and intensity of SLAMABAMA will have your undivided attention. These four musicians' incomparable stage presence can only be described as a uniquely perfect blend of Country, Rock & Pop.

Potato Days will host the band for the annual street dance being held on Saturday night, August 26. The group will take to the stage downtown on Front Street from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. This is a 21 and over event.

SLAMABAMA's show consists a female lead with energy and vocal range to burn, PLUS an additional male lead vocalist/lead guitarist. Add in a third vocalist to round out their unique two and three part harmonies backed by a dynamic and tight rhythm section, and you've got "that SLAMABAMA sound".

They have built a reputation of unequaled stamina on stage as they seamlessly go from one song to the next at a breakneck pace. They always keep the energy and fun moving toward an out of control pace for a intense concert experience for all.

SLAMABAMA is one of those rare acts that can bring your venue the best of both worlds. Their North-Meets-South approach to music allows them to smoothly bridge the gap between Country and Rock. Authentic Southern vocals combined with "big city" showmanship will keep audiences happy... regardless of what kind of music they love.

Be prepared to join in the fun when you sing along to all of your favorites! Often imitated, but never duplicated... a SLAMABAMA show is both an entertaining and interactive music experience seldom seen in live music today.
