Knights junior Jayce Parsons (#4) with the reverse layup during the semi-final game as ALAH faced the Bulldogs of St. Teresa on Wednesday, December 28 at the St. Teresa Christmas basketball tournament. The Knights trailed at halftime 36-40. Parsons had 21-points in the game and was one of three players in double figures.

Connor Nettles (#12) goes airborne in the lane scoring the bucket in the third quarter as Bulldog defender Mark Pokrywinski (#3) couldn't stop him. Nettles had 12-points for the Knights in a back-and-forth game that went into overtime.

With the reverse layup is senior Wyatt Hilligoss (#3) for the Knights as two Bulldog defenders could not stop him from scoring the bucket. Hilligoss led all scorers with 28-points making four 3-point shots in the game.

Senior Clay Seal (#22) makes the basket and the free-throw off the foul by St. Teresa's Max Schilawski (#1) late in the fourth quarter to pull the Knights to within 3-points. The back and forth contest went into overtime but the Knights were defeated 74-80 in a hard fought game.

Down by two-points and time running out in the fourth quarter, tough double-team defense by Nathaniel Hale (#15) and Jayce Parsons (#4) for ALAH forced the jump ball call with possession going to the Knights and they would score forcing the game into overtime.
