

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS VS. BLUE RIDGE

The ALAH Knights girls basketball team hosted the Blue Ridge Knights in a varsity only matchup on January 5. Four of the Knight starters are shown here on defense early in the contest. They are #24 Kailee Otto, in front of Kailee, Claire Seal, to her right, Alayna Plank and #2 Charley Condill double team the Blue Ridge player.

In the second half of the home game with Blue Ridge last Thursday, Coach Mac Condill played this group of sophomores, #15 Lindsay Rohacs, #25 Jewelyonna Hutchcraft, and #3 Addison Yeakel triple team the Blue Ridge shooter while Alayna Plank, to the right of the basket and #20 Sara Herschberger are ready to rebound. The game provided all of the reserves plenty of playing time in a varsity contest.

Knights #12 Claire Seal lays the ball up for two of her team leading 14 points in the home varsity game with Blue Ridge. Despite playing just eleven minutes in the game, Claire recorded a double double again by securing 10 rebounds to go along with her points. The ALAH Knights won the game 66-17.

ALAH freshman Anna Rawlins puts up her fourth 3 pointer at the end of the varsity contest with Blue Ridge last week. This one unfortunately didn't count as it bounced off the top of the backboard before dropping through the net. Her other 3 treys hit nothing but the bottom of the net! Anna with her threes and 2 free throws was the second leading scorer for ALAH with 11 points.
