

ALAH JH HIGH BOYS VS. SHELBYVILLE

The ALAH jr. high boys basketball teams finished their regular season at home against the Shelbyville Rams on January 19. Knights #20 Alexander Olivero defends the Shelbyville center with the ball while Carson Reed and Anden Berry double team the Rams' #22. On the left, Mace Stirrett and on the right, #41 Jansen Burnett are guarding their men.

Knights seventh grader Alexander Olivero shoots over the outstretched arm of Shelbyville's #40 in the home game last Thursday. Knights #40 Mace Stirrett and #4 Carson Reed are watching Alexander's shot.

#4 Carson Reed, a seventh grader on the ALAH jr. high boys team goes up with a shot in the third quarter of the game with Shelbyville on January 19. The seventh grade lost to the Rams 20-29.

ALAH seventh grader Landon Willoughby shoots over the Ram defense in the last regular season game for the jr. high teams. Knights #40 Mace Stirrett and on the right #2 Solly Binion take in the action. The seventh grad Knights were to begin post season play on Saturday, January 20 in the IESA Regional in Sullivan.

The eighth grade ALAH Knights hosted the Shelbyville Rams in the last regular season game on January 19. #15 Tyler Lisanby, #14 Billy Lieb, #3 Brennon Hutson, #35 Coye Grant and #22 Marcus Otto pack the lane on defense in the second quarter.

#3 Brennon Hutson an eighth grader on the ALAH jr. high boys team puts up a 3 pointer in the home game against Shelbyville last Thursday. Brennon's basket pulled the Knights to within two in the third quarter.

Knights eighth grader #22 Marcus Otto launches a 3 pointer in the third quarter of the last regular season game for the jr. high Knights. Cooper Shoemaker is also on the court. The eighth graders battled to the end but dropped the contest 36-43.

ALAH eighth grader Jayden Parsons pulls down a defensive rebound in the game against Shelbyville last week. #30 Kody Burdick, #15 Tyler Lisanby and to the right Marcus Otto watch Jayden. The eighth grade boys being IESA Regional play on January 28 in Teutopolis.