

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL @ LPC TOURNEY VS. HERITAGE

The ALAH Knights were hosts of a first round game of the Lincoln Prairie Conference tournament on Friday, January 20. They played the Heritage Hawks, who had defeated the Knights earlier in the season in an overtime game. ALAH would get revenge for that loss with some good defense as seen here with #3 Wyatt Hilligoss, #22 Clay Seal, #4 Jayce Parsons, #12 Connor Nettles, and behind the Heritage player, Will Hilligoss on the court in the first quarter.

Knights freshman Will Hilligoss pulls down one of his six rebounds in the LPC tourney game against Heritage. #22 Clay Seal and Wyatt Hilligoss are also in the photo. The Knights had 22 defensive rebounds in the contest.

ALAH junior Connor Nettles puts up one of his three 3 pointers in the first quarter of the conference tournament game with Heritage last Friday. Connor was the second leading scorer for the Knights with 17. His shot here put the Knights up 19-12 at the time.

Launching one of his six made 3 pointers, Knights senior Wyatt Hilligoss scored the last points for the Knights in the LPC tourney game with Heritage. Wyatt was 6 of 7 on threes and finished the game with a team high 28 points in the 71-52 victory. The win moved the Knights to a round two game against LSA at Argenta-Oreana on Saturday, January 21. The tournament continues through next week, finishing on January 28.
