

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS VS. CENTRAL A&M

The ALAH Knights high school girls basketball teams traveled to Moweauqua on Saturday, January 28 to take on the Central A & M Raiders. Here on defense for the Knights in the jr. varsity game are #13 Ruby Burton, at the top, Lindsay Rohacs, #10 Savannah Butcher, #3 Addison Yeakel and in front of Addison, Anna Rawlins. The JV Knights won their game 33-24.

ALAH sophomore Alayna Plank takes the ball away from the Central A & M player in the away JV game last Saturday. Behind Alayna is Savannah Butcher who is also trying to get the ball while teammate #12 Hannah Carter watches.

#13 Ruby Burton, a freshman on the ALAH JV basketball team, holds her form after launching a 3 pointer in the game vs. CAM on January 28. Teammate Josie Carrillo, top, watches Ruby's shot.

Knights freshman Dustee Gregory grabs a rebound in the jr. varsity game with CAM on January 28. Other Knights on the floor are #14 Josie Carrillo, #13 Ruby Burton and #24 Addi Rohr.

Knights junior Claire Seal would get an old fashioned three point play on this basket as she was fouled on the shot and made the basket and free throw. Those 3 points put the Knights up 14-2 over the CAM Raiders early in the second quarter. Claire had yet another double double with a game high 21 points and 15 rebounds.

ALAH senior #13 Kaci Beachy pulls down a rebound in last Saturday's varsity game at Central A & M. Kaci had 3 rebounds, 6 points and 1 steal in the contest. Other Knights on defense are #24 Kailee Otto, #12 Claire Seal and behind Kaci, Charley Condill.

Knights senior Kailee Otto ties up the basketball with a CAM player in the varsity contest against the Raiders last Saturday. Teammates Claire Seal #12 and Kaci Beachy #13 look on. Kailee had 10 points, 3 rebounds and 1 steal in the game.

The Knights defense played very well in the varsity game with CAM on January 28. They held the Raiders to just 5 points in the first half to lead 26-5 at halftime. Here on defense in the third quarter are #25 Jewelyonna Hutchcraft, #13 Kaci Beachy and #2 Charley Condill. This game was Jewelyonna's first varsity start and she did a great job especially on defense in the 50-29 Knights' victory over the Raiders.
