The ALAH Knights boys basketball teams scheduled a non-conference home game with the Dieterich Movin' Maroons on Friday, February 10. Knights #21 Colin Smith tipped off the jr. varsity game with Dieterich's #5. #13 Nate Hale and #24 Ryan Appleby wait at the center circle to see where the ball goes.

Knights freshman Easton Frederick #25 puts up a jumper over the Dieterich defender in the first quarter of the home JV game last Friday. Easton would lead the JV scoring for the Knights with 21 points.

Above: ALAH's #13 Nate Hale and #23 Maddix Stirrett pressure the ball in the JV home contest with Dieterich on February 10. Other Knight defenders are #24 Ryan Appleby, #25 Easton Frederick and behind the Dieterich player, Colin Smith.

#24 Ryan Appleby puts up a shot in the Knights JV game with the Dieterich Movin' Maroons last week. Ryan had 6 points in the game. The Knights cut the lead to three in the fourth quarter but Dieterich held on to win 46-40. The JV Knights will play their last two games next week, at Arcola on the 14th and at home against Cumberland on Thursday, February 16.

ALAH freshman Will Hilligoss puts up a jumper in the varsity contest with the Dieterich Movin' Maroons last Friday. This was Will's only basket but he contributed 4 steals, 3 assists and 2 rebounds in the game.

Below: Surrounded by Dieterich defenders ALAH senior Wyatt Hilligoss launches a shot from the lane that pulled the Knights to within 1 at 35-36 with a minute left in the third quarter. Wyatt had 16 points in the game along with 4 rebounds and 2 steals. The Knights will finish their regular season with a game at Arcola on Tuesday, February 14 and their final home game against Cumberland on February 16, which will be Senior Night.

Knights junior Connor Nettles twists his way to the basket in the home varsity boys game vs. Dieterich on Friday, February 10. Connor led the Knights in scoring with 18 points.

ALAH junior Jayce Parsons lays the ball up for a breakaway basket after a steal in the varsity contest against Dieterich last Friday. Jayce's basket gave the Knights a 1 point lead at 50-49 with a minute and a half left in the game. The Movin' Maroons would come back to win 55-51 in a hard fought last minute. Jayce had 14 points in the game including hitting 3 of 4 three pointers.
