

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS VS. ARCOLA

Knights sophomore Alayna Plank puts up a 3 pointer in the jr. varsity game at Arcola on Monday, February 6. Alayna's basket was the first for ALAH in the game and gave the Knights a 3-0 lead early in the first quarter.

ALAH freshman #13 Ruby Burton puts up a jumper in the first quarter of the JV game at Arcola last week. Her shot gave the Knights a 16-6 lead at the time. The Riders would come back and tie the game at 28 with 2:45 left but ALAH would score the last four points of the contest to bring home a 32-28 victory,

The ALAH JV girls basketball team played their next to last game of the season at Arcola on February 6. Their final game would be on Thursday, February 9 vs. Cumberland at home. Here on defense for the Knights are #24 Addi Rohr, #12 Hannah Carter, #10 Savannah Butcher and #20 Sara Herschberger.

Savannah Butcher watches her shot from under the left side of the basket in the final minute of the Knights JV contest with Arcola on February 6. The ball would drop through the net to give the Knights a 30-28 lead. Also watching Savannah's shot are #12 Hannah Carter and #23 Alayna Plank. Teammate Lindsay Rohacs would make two free throws with about 25 seconds left to secure the win over the Riders.

ALAH junior Claire Seal goes up for a basket in the second quarter of the varsity game at Arcola on February 6. Claire had her seventh consecutive double double with 10 rebounds and a team high 17 points. She also had 4 assists, 2 steals and 1 block in the game.

Knights game high rebounder Charley Condill pulls down one of her 15 boards in the varsity game with Arcola last week. Charley was also the leading scorer for ALAH with 16 points. On the floor with Charley are #12 Claire Seal, #24 Kailee Otto and #1 Jewelyonna Hutchcraft.

Knights #12 Claire Seal and Jewelyonna Hutchcraft double team Arcola's #23 in the third quarter of the varsity girls basketball game vs. the Riders on February 6. Kailee Otto and #13 Kaci Beachy are on defense in the front court.

SWEET REVENGE!!!! The varsity Knights girls basketball team avenged their double overtime loss to the Arcola Purple Riders in the LPC tourney last month by defeating the Riders 51-38 at Arcola last week. From left to right, Kaci Beachy, Alayana Plank, Kailee Otto, Charley Condill and Claire Seal are greeted by their bench after Charley hit a buzzer beater to end the third quarter with the Knights leading 41-32. To set up the shot, Claire had gone to the floor with a rebound and Coach Mac Condill quickly called a time out with .9 seconds remaining on the clock. Coach Condill got the officials to add a second to that. Charley caught the inbounds pass and put up a shot that went through the basket at the buzzer!
