

SENIOR NIGHT!

On Thursday, February the ALAH high school boys basketball team recognized their four seniors and their parents with introductions prior to the last home boys basketball game. From left to right are Clay Seal, son of Nathan and Adrienne Seal; Wyatt Hilligoss, son of Kevin and Emily Hilligoss; Steven Edwards, son of Terrie and Suzy Edwards; Suzy was unable to attend so Steven was escorted by Kristin Nall; and Max Duzan, son of Darrell Duzan and Tosha Binion. Their high school activities, favorite basketball memories and future plans were shared by the voice of Knights basketball, Bob Silvanik.

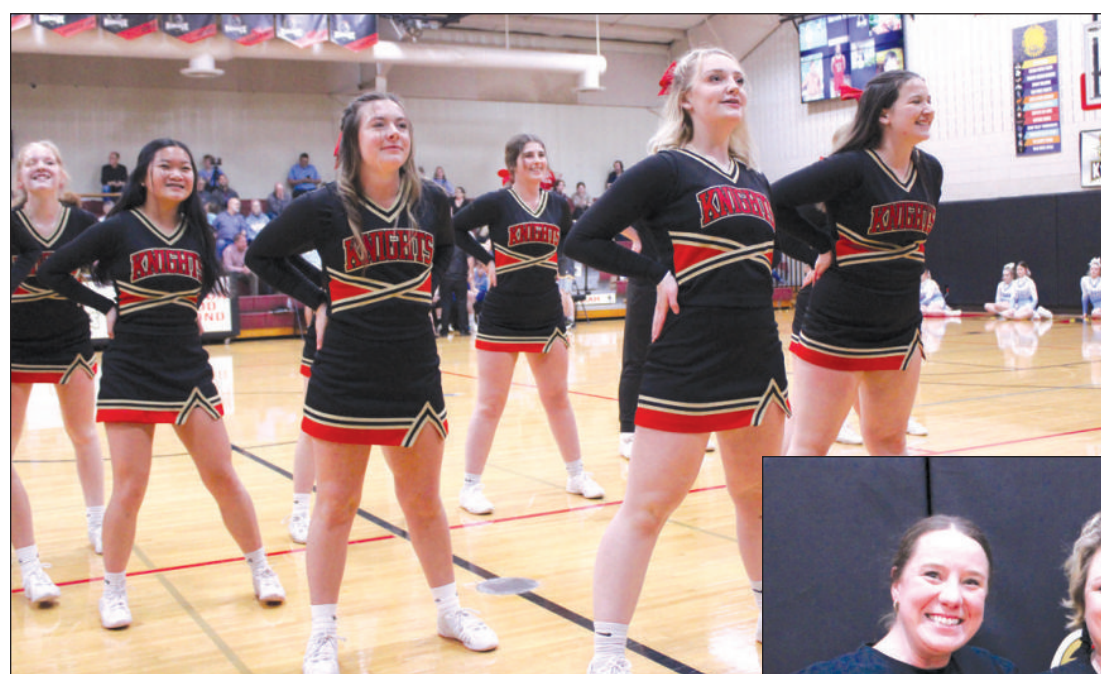

ALAH high school Senior Cheerleaders were introduced with their parents at the final home basketball game last Thursday. From left to right are Chloe Franklin, daughter of Rick and Jamie Franklin; Regann Bowles, daughter of Ryan and Jami Bowles; and Molly Appleby, daughter of Andy and Misty Appleby. Their high school activities, favorite cheer memories and future plans were announced as they were introduced.

Senior members of the ALAH High School Pep Band and their parents were recognized during the 2023 Senior Night on February 16. From left to right, William Rosenberry, son of Justin and Amy Rosenberry; Xander Thompson, son of Jesse and Julia Thompson; and Miah Malin, daughter of Jeremy and Amy Malin. Favorite band memories, high school activities, and future plans were announced for each as they were introduced. The administration, staff, coaching staffs, teammates and the communities of Arthur, Lovington, Atwood and Hammond thanked all of the seniors and their families for all of their work, and support over their high school careers. They also wished all of the Seniors from Cumberland High School the best of luck in the future.

ALAH high school Athletic Director Nathan Seal has really incorporated the new video board in the gym to enhance the basketball game experience. Here on the board is a Thank You to Bob Silvanik for his duties as the voice of ALAH Basketball. The board also shows pictures of the Knights team, the opponents team, starting lineup animation, a thank you to officials, Senior Night features, upcoming activities, and much more. It is also used whenever an athlete signs their commitment to a college or university by showing images from their school and also of their high school sports participation.

The three girls out front in this cheer formation are Chloe Franklin, Molly Appleby and Regann Bowles. As the Seniors on the 2022-23 squad they were cheering at their last home basketball game on Thursday, February 16. The girls have cheered during football season and for both boys and girls basketball games this year.

From left to right, Lori Jefferson, Misty Appleby and Brittany Bartley have been the Cheer Coaches for the ALAH Knights cheerleaders this school year. From football through basketball season they have helped the squad increase school spirit and become an exciting group to watch.
