ALAH freshman #25 Easton Frederick lays the ball up for a basket in the fourth quarter of the JV game with Cumberland last week. Easton had 8 points in the contest.

ALAH senior #24 Max Duzan goes up with a shot in the first quarter of the last regular season varsity game vs. Cumberland on February 16. The officials called a foul on the floor before the shot so the Knights retained possession. Other Knights on the court are #12 Connor Nettles and #22 Clay Seal.

Knights sophomore #23 Maddix Stirrett shoots over the Cumberland defender in the last JV home game last Thursday. Maddix's basket tied the game at 36 after the Knights came back from 9 down at the end of the third. Neither team scored in the last 53 seconds, but the Knights were called for a foul on a Cumberland player's desperation heave at the buzzer and he made a freethrow to end the game with the Pirates on top 37-36. Maddix was the leading scorer for ALAH with 14 points.

Knights senior #3 Wyatt Hilligoss goes up for a shot in the second quarter of the varsity game against Cumberland last week. The Knights had a slow start and trailed 19-6 at the time but rallied in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 4 before being forced to foul and the Pirates made their free throws to win 70-55. Wyatt was the leading scorer for the Knights with 20 points.

Dalton Vanausdoll, a sophomore on the Knights varsity team puts up a jumper in the lane over the Cumberland defense. His basket brought the Knights to within 9 at 44-53. ALAH then outscored the Pirates 8-3 over the next couple of minutes to make the score 52-56 with 2:47 left in the game. Cumberland was able to make their free throws down the stretch to go on to win the game. #22 Clay Seal watches Dalton's shot.

#22 Clay Seal playing in his last home game on Senior Night pulls down a rebound in the last minute of the varsity LPC contest against the Cumberland Pirates. Other Knights on the court are #4 Jayce Parsons, to his left, Will Hilligoss and #3 Wyatt Hilligoss. The Knights entered post season play on Saturday, February 18 against the Flora Wolves at Flora High School.
