

ALAH JR HIGH VOLLEYBALL @ REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Knights 8th grader Isabel Melton (#24) hits the ball over the Shelbyville defender and scores the point in the first game of the Regional championship game last Thursday in Sullivan.

ALAH Libero Sophie Monts (#3) dives for the bump to the front row as teammate Maleyna Vanausdoll (#31) is right beside her ready to assist if needed. The Knights came from behind to win the first game 25-21 in the championship game.

Kenna Blaudow (#42) goes down low for the bump to the front row with teammates Brynlee Moore (#6) and Leighton Poulos (#9) watching the action in the first hard fought game.

Reece Oye (#17) goes up for the spike on the set from Morgan Casteel (#5) and scores the point for the Knights. At the net is Isabel Melton (#24) watching Reece's hit.

Knights Morgan Casteel (#5) at the net taps the ball just over the reach of the Rams defender scoring the point in the second game. ALAH advanced to the championship game by defeating Marshall on Tuesday.

Going for the kill is 8th grader Leighton Poulos (#9) in the second game over two Shelbyville defenders. The Knights trailed by 7-points but rallied and came from behind to win the Regional championship 26-24 and advancing to the Sectional this week in Paris.
