

ALAH Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre held Saturday

On Saturday, April 1 the ALAH Fine Arts Boosters held their annual Dessert Theatre featuring music and art provided by students throughout the CUSD #305 district. Senior artists were featured at one end of the gym with their artwork. Bianca Corona is shown here with some of her work.

Seniors Alisha Frederick and Charley Condill, usually seen in sports photos, show another of their talents with their display of artwork which was a part of the Senior Artist feature at the Fine Arts Booster Dessert Theatre last Saturday. Many impressive examples of student artwork from all of District #305 middle schools through high school were displayed in the new gym during the evening.

ALAH choral director, Mr. Stephen McClarey sets up the microphone for the sixth through eighth grade choruses from the district's three grade schools. This group along with the jr. high chorus, jr. high band and the sixth through eighth band performed at the annual Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre on Saturday, April 1.

During the course of the Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre last Saturday, four senior choral students were featured in a Senior Spotlight. Here, Angelina Davis-Kearns, assisted by Evan Fowler sings her solo, "Glimpse of Us".

Kylie Stutzman sang, "Colors of the Wind" for her Senior Spotlight solo at the Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre last Saturday. Besides the Senior Spotlights the ALAH High School band and chorus performed several entertaining selections, including some faculty members in one of the band's selections and a percussion feature using push brooms!

Lillian Daily chose the song, "Someone Like You", for her Senior Spotlight number at the Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre held at ALAH High School on Saturday, April 1.

At the annual Fine Arts Boosters Dessert Theatre, Miah Malin sang, "Passing Through", for her Senior Spotlight selection. Besides the featured soloists, there was lots of musical entertainment from the district's band and choral students. Both a silent and a live auction were held at intermission to raise funds for the Fine Arts programs throughout CUSD #305.
