

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL VS ARCOLA

Freshman Will Hilligoss starts his slide into home as the baseball gets by the Arcola catcher. Will would be safe on the play, giving the Knights a 6-5 win over the Riders in the bottom of the last inning of the home game on Friday, April 7.

ALAH senior Wyatt Hilligoss was the Knights starting pitcher in the home game against Arcola on Friday, April 7. Wyatt pitched the first four innings of what would become a very exciting game.

Knights senior Clay Seal came into the home game with Arcola to pitch at the start of the fifth inning. At the time, ALAH trailed 5-1. Not only would Clay finish out the game giving up no more runs but he drove in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh to give the Knights a 6-5 victory over the Purple Riders.

Knights third baseman Dalton Vanausdoll eyes the ball he just hit in the sixth inning of the game vs. Arcola last Friday. With 2 outs and 2 on, the ball sailed over the right field fence for a three run homer that tied the game at 5 all.

ACS dropped both games in Saturday's varsity double-header at Meridian High School. Conquering Riders showed flashes on the mound and at the plate but will look to tighten up the defense going forward.

Wyatt Julius led the way at the plate, going 2-5 on the day with 2 RBI, a triple, walk and run scored.
