

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

ALAH starting pitcher Clay Seal delivers a pitch in the first inning of the Knights home match up with the Cumberland Pirates. Clay earned the win in the game allowing just two hits over six innings, while also striking out ten and giving up just one walk.

The Cumberland third baseman falls over the Knights' Will Hilligoss who was attempting to steal third at the time. The umpire called interference on the play and Will scored ALAH's first run of the game last Friday.

Knights senior Kody Kornewald heads to first after hitting the ball in the game with Cumberland on April 14. Unfortunately it was a ground out but it also resulted in Dalton Vanausdoll scoring what would be the winning run from third base. The Knights won the contest 2-1 in an exciting hard fought game.

Wyatt Hilligoss came into the Knights home baseball game against Cumberland in the seventh inning. He pitched one inning in relief and with two Pirates on base he got three outs to end the game.

Knights freshman Lucas Butcher delivers a pitch in the home JV baseball game with Cumberland on April 14. The Cumberland player behind Lucas was the umpire for the JV game.

The ALAH JV baseball team played three innings with Cumberland after the varsity game last Friday. Second baseman, Derrick Schrock makes the throw to first for an out in that game.

Edik Arwine, a freshman on the Knights JV baseball team, is at bat in the home game with Cumberland last week. Edik would draw a walk in his at bat.

Knights junior Hunter Grant was the catcher in the JV baseball game with Cumberland on April 14. Hunter pulled double duty as he also caught the varsity game prior to this contest.
