

ALAH 8th Grade Girls Invite Champions!!

The ALAH eighth grade girls track and field team won their division of the 20th annual ALAH JH Invitational last Saturday. Pictured here with the first place trophy are: from left to right: Gwen Herring, Macelyn Boddy, Kate Wiley, Morgan Casteel, Leighton Poulos, Embrey Reardon, Cassidy Rohacs and their Head Coach Bryton Ragon.

8th Grade Knights Track Take Team Title

The 20th annual ALAH JH Invitational was held on Saturday, April 15. This meet debuted in 2002 as the Arthur JH Invitational and has seen name changes and some very good performances from a lot of different teams over the years. This year the home team of eighth grade boys scored 103.5 points to earn the first place trophy. Pictured here from left to right are: Head Coach Don McCarthy, Cameron McGill, Mason Thomas, Owen Herring, Nick Rafferty, Preston Gingerich, Cooper Shoemaker, Max Boddy, Coye Grant, Dylan Ingersoll, Tyler Lisanby, Brennon Hutson and Assistant Coach Mike Haste.

Knights 7th Grade Boys Track-Invitational Runners-Up

The ALAH seventh grade boys track and field team just missed first place by two points but still earned a trophy for second place at their own Invitational on Saturday, April 15. Pictured here from left to right are: Head Coach Don McCarthy, Colton Snyder, Dustin Snyder, Cannon Doggett, Beau Green, Bentley Hutson, Anden Berry, Donovan Vanausdoll, Alex Olivero, Jase Kingery, Conner Crabtree and Assistant Coach Mike Haste.

Knights Softball Plays Six Games; Goes 4-2 on the Week

It was a busy week for the ALAH softball team playing six games in four days. They played three games at home and participated in the Tuscola Invitational on Saturday playing another three games.

ALAH Falls Short to Marshall Lady Lions, 9-5

Marshall Lady Lions got things moving in the first inning as Haley McGuire drove in two when McGuire homered.

In the bottom of the second inning, ALAH tied things up at five when Mackenzie Condill singled on a 0-2 count, scoring two runs.

The Lady Lions pulled away for good with three runs in the third inning as Anna Strohm singled on a 3-1 count, scoring one run and Lynn Welborn singled on a 2-0 count, scoring one run.

The Knights notched three runs in the second inning driven by singles by both Condill's.

Madison Schweighart was in the circle for ALAH as she allowed eight hits and eight runs over three innings, striking out one and walking one. Layla Deel threw two innings in relief out of the bullpen.

ALAH smacked one home run on the day as Condill had a long ball in the first inning.

The Knights racked up nine hits on the day with the Condill girls both managing multiple hits.

Despite Collecting Ten Hits, ALAH Falls to Coal City Lady Coalers

Even though the Knights collected ten hits to Coal City Lady Coalers' nine, they still fell 7-5 on Saturday.

ALAH Softball got things moving in the first inning, when Alisha Frederick singled on a 3-2 count, scoring one run.

Coal City pulled away for good with four runs in the third inning.

Madison Schweighart was on the rubber for ALAH. The hurler surrendered seven runs on nine hits over four and a third innings, striking out one.

ALAH tallied ten hits in the game. Mackenzie Condill, Alisha Frederick, and Charley Condill all had two hits in the game.

Knights Takes Early Lead in Victory Over Oakwood Comets

An early lead helped ALAH defeat Oakwood Comets 8-5 on Saturday.

The Knights scored on a home run by Mackenzie Condill, a single by Kailee Otto, a single by Layla Deel, a double by Anna Rawlins, a sacrifice fly by Alayna Plank, and a stolen base by Rawlins in the first inning.

Alisha Frederick led the team to victory in the circle allowing two hits and five runs over three innings, striking out one. Deel threw one inning in relief out of the bullpen.

ALAH racked up seven hits with Otto and Rawlins each managing two hits to lead the team.

4-Hit Day for Frederick as ALAH Skirts Past Heritage

Four hits from Alisha Frederick paved the way to victory for Arthur Lovington Atwood Hammond over Heritage 17-2 on Friday. Frederick doubled in the first, doubled in the second, doubled in the third, and singled in the fourth.

In the first inning, ALAH got their offense started when Mackenzie Condill singled on a 1-1 count, scoring one run.

The Knights tallied five runs in the fourth inning from Condill, Frederick, and Layla Deel as they all drove in runs in the frame.

Madison Schweighart took the win lasting two innings, allowing one hit and zero runs while striking out two and walking one. Deel and Frederick entered the game out of the bullpen and helped to close out the game in relief.

Frederick led the team with four hits in four at bats.

ALAH Softball Beats Tuscola by ten Runs

The Knights cruised to an easy victory at home over Tuscola 12-2 on Wednesday.

The offense fired up in the first inning, when Kaci Beachy singled on a 3-1 count, scoring one run. They put up four runs in the third inning coming from Charley Condill, Mackenzie Condill, Alisha Frederick, and Kailee Otto all driving in runs in the frame.

Madison Schweighart took the win as the ace allowed five hits and two runs over five innings, striking out one.

ALAH totaled 13 hits in the game. Frederick and Condill each had three hits to lead the team.

ALAH Softball Defeats Arcola in a Blow-Out Victory

Knights softball had all cylinders firing on offense at home on Monday, winning big over Arcola 11-1

ALAH fired up the offense in the first inning when Mackenzie Condill singled on a 1-2 count, scoring one run.

They put up five runs in the third inning with Charley Condill, Mackenzie Condill, Alisha Frederick, and Kaci Beachy each having RBIs in the frame. Madison Schweighart led the team to victory in the circle. The hurler surrendered one run on three hits over five innings, striking out eight.

The Knights racked up 11 hits in the game. Alisha Frederick socked one home run on the day and she along with Charley Condill had three hits to lead the team.

Knights Baseball Pick Up Two Wins

Both teams were strong on the pitcher's mound Friday, but ALAH Knights defeated Cumberland Pirates 2-1 at home. ALAH Knights pitchers allowed just two hits to Cumberland Pirates.

ALAH Knights fired up the offense in the first inning, when Clay Seal drew a walk, scoring one run.

Cumberland Pirates evened things up at one in the top of the third inning when an error scored one run for Cumberland Pirates.

ALAH Knights pulled away for good with one run in the fourth inning. In the fourth Kody Kornewald grounded out, scoring one run.

Seal earned the win for ALAH Knights. The lefty allowed two hits and one run over six innings, striking out ten and walking one. Wyatt Hilligoss threw one inning in relief out of the bullpen.

Sawyer Keyser took the loss for Cumberland Pirates. The hurler went six innings, allowing two runs on two hits and striking out two.

Dalton Vanausdoll and Will

Hilligoss each managed one hit to lead ALAH Knights.

Three Homeruns for Vanausdoll

Dalton Vanausdoll wasted no opportunities at the plate on Tuesday, driving in six on three hits to lead ALAH Knights past Paris Tigers 15-4 on Tuesday. Vanausdoll drove in runs on a home run in the first, a home run in the third, a home run in the fourth, and a wild pitch in the sixth.

ALAH Knights earned the victory despite allowing Paris Tigers to score four runs in the fourth inning. Ethan Curl and Sebastian Daughtery all contributed in the big inning with RBIs.

ALAH Knights fired up the offense in the first inning, when Vanausdoll homered on a 3-2 count, scoring two runs.

ALAH Knights notched five runs in the fifth inning. The big inning was thanks to singles by Maddix Stirrett and Lucas Butcher, an error on a ball put in play by Kody Kornewald, and a double by Will Hilligoss.

Vanausdoll was the winning pitcher for ALAH Knights. Vanausdoll allowed four hits and four runs over three and two-thirds innings, striking out five. Stirrett threw two and a third innings in relief out of the bullpen.

Ty King toed the rubber for Paris Tigers. King surrendered three runs on three hits over one and one-third innings, striking out two and walking one. Parker Underwood, Brady Crippes, Landon Englum, and Reed Stuck each entered the game as relief, throwing one and one-third innings, one and one-third innings, one inning, and one inning respectively.

ALAH Knights tallied three home runs on the day. Vanausdoll put one out in the first, third, and fourth innings.

ALAH Knights saw the ball well today, racking up 15 hits in the game. Butcher, Vanausdoll, Clay Seal, Nathan Hale, and Stirrett all had multiple hits for ALAH Knights. Vanausdoll and Butcher each collected three hits to lead ALAH Knights.