

ALAH senior Alisha Frederick watches the ball she just hit sail over the fence for a home run in the game against Mattoon on Tuesday, April 25. The game was a slugfest with lots of homers by both teams with the Knights dropping the contest 19-16.

Senior Kailee Otto comes into home plate after her second home run of the game with the Mattoon Green Wave on April 25. Kailee's Knights teammates wait for her to step on the plate so they can celebrate!

Knights first baseman Layla Deel watches for the high infield fly ball to come down to her glove for an out. The Mattoon runner is on her way to first with Knights catcher Charley Condill coming in for backup.

Knights sophomore Mackenzie Condill takes off for first base in the home game last week with Mattoon. Mackenzie would get a double that drove in her sister Charley from second base. Charley singled and then stole second just ahead of Mackenzie's at bat. The RBI would cut the Wave lead in half at 14-7. The Knights would get within two runs at 14-12 before falling to Mattoon 19-16.

ALAH third base coach Ginny Condill points to home and tells base runner, Skyler Vorck to go for home. Skyler, who was pinch running for pitcher Madison Schweighart would score the Knights second run of the game. The Knights led 4-1 in the fifth but a Bomber three run homer tied the game and then A-O took the lead for good with another three run homer in the seventh. The final score would be 7-5 in favor of the visitors and was the Knights first conference loss of the season.

Knights Softball Goes 2-2; Frederick and Otto Have Big Week

Kailee Otto Drives in Six to Seal ALAH Victory Over Blue Ridge

Kailee Otto was clutch at the plate with ducks on the pond on Saturday at home, driving in six on three hits to lead the Knights past Blue Ridge 19-3. She drove in runs on a home run in the first and a home run in the second.

An early lead helped propel ALAH scoring on a single by Mackenzie Condill and a home run by Otto in the first inning.

The Knights put up eight runs in the second inning. The offensive onslaught came from doubles by Charley Condill and Layla Deel, a single by Mackenzie, a home run by Kailee Otto, and a groundout by Anna Rawlins.

Madison Schweighart took the win. The hurler lasted four innings, allowing five hits and three runs while striking out three and walking zero.

The Knights smacked three home runs on the day. Alisha Frederick had a long ball in the third inning and Otto went deep in the first and second innings.

ALAH saw the ball well racking up 17 hits in the game. Condill, Otto, Condill, and Kaci Beachy all managed multiple hits in the game.

Knights Fall to Argenta-Oreana After Seventh Inning Score

ALAH lost the lead late in a 7-5 defeat to Argenta-Oreana on Friday. The game was tied at four with the Bombers batting in the top of the seventh when Miriah Powell homered on the first pitch of the at bat, scoring three runs.

ALAH fired up the offense in the first inning, when Mackenzie Condill doubled on a 1-1 count, scoring one run.

Argenta-Oreana evened things up at four in the top of the sixth inning when Brynn Jones homered on a 1-2 count, scoring three runs.

Madison Schweighart took the loss for ALAH lasting seven innings, allowing ten hits and seven runs while striking out five.

The Knights tallied ten hits in the game. Kailee Otto, Mackenzie Condill, Alisha Frederick, and Charley Condill each managed multiple hits. Otto went 3-for-4 at the plate to lead the team in hits.

ALAH Falls to Mattoon After Seventh Inning Score

The Knights lost the lead late in a 19-16 defeat to Mattoon at home on Tuesday. Mattoon trailed 16-15 in the top of the seventh inning when Perry doubled on a 0-1 count, scoring two runs.

Kailee Otto collected four hits in defeat. She homered in the first, homered in the third, doubled in the fourth, and homered in the sixth.

Mattoon got things started in the first inning. Enlow singled on a 2-2 count, scoring one run.

ALAH tallied four runs in the sixth inning putting the pressure on, led by a single by Alisha Frederick, a home run by Otto, and a groundout by Mackenzie Condill.

Madison Schweighart led things off on the rubber for ALAH as the hurler lasted seven innings, allowing 22 hits and 19 runs while striking out four.

The Knights socked four home runs on the day. Frederick went for the long ball in the first inning and Otto had a dinger in the first, third, and sixth innings.

ALAH scattered 19 hits in the game. Otto, Layla Deel, Condill, Frederick, Anna Rawlins, Alayna Plank, and Charley Condill each racked up multiple hits in the game. Otto went 4-for-4 at the plate to lead the team in hits. ALAH didn't commit a single error in the field.

Mattoon had 22 hits in the game.

Four RBI Day for Alisha Frederick Brings Victory for Knights Over Cumberland

Four runs batted in from Alisha Frederick helped lead ALAH over Cumberland 9-4 on the road Monday. Frederick drove in runs on a sacrifice fly in the first, a single in the third, and a single in the fifth.

ALAH got on the board in the first inning. Frederick's sac fly scored one run for the Knights.

In the bottom of the second inning, Cumberland tied things up at two when Kendyn Syfert doubled on a 1-2 count, scoring two runs.

The Knights pulled away for good with four runs in the third inning. In the third Frederick singled on a 2-0 count, scoring one run, Kaci Beachy singled on a 1-2 count, scoring one run, Anna Rawlins grounded out, scoring one run, and Madison Schweighart singled on a 1-1 count, scoring one run.

Schweighart earned the victory on the rubber allowing nine hits and four runs over seven innings, striking out six.

ALAH had 14 hits in the game. Frederick and Condill each collected three hits to lead ALAH Softball.

ALAH senior Charley Condill got to pitch an inning of the Knights JV contest with A-O last Friday night. Charley traded positions in the battery as she is the catcher on the varsity team.

With the softball floating in the circle of Knight infielders, the girls are celebrating the two quick outs they got in the first inning of the home LPC game with the Argenta-Oreana Bombers last Friday. Starting with #1 shortstop Alisha Frederick and on left around the circle, second base, Kaci Beachy, first base, Layla Deel, pitcher, Madison Schweighart, and third base, Kailee Otto are enjoying the moment.

The Knights softball team played three innings of jr. varsity ball with Argenta-Oreana last Friday. Here Alayna Plank hit the ball to the outfield fence and got a triple to start the second inning.