

Knights Baseball Capture 2023 Lincoln Prairie Conference Crown!!

The Arthur Lovington Atwood Hammond Knights baseball team finished their regular season with an unusual home double header on Thursday, May 11. They defeated CGB in the first game 10-0 in four innings and then won over the Tri-County Titans 17-1. The Knights and the Okaw Valley Timberwolves finished the season with 9-1 conference records but the conference title went to the Knights as they had bested OV 5-0 on Tuesday, May 9. It was the Timberwolves' first conference loss since 2019! ALAH BASEBALL SENIOR NIGHT. The ALAH Knights baseball team played two games on May 11. Between those games the four senior players and their parents were recognized. Athletic Director Nathan Seal introduced the seniors from left to right: Wyatt Hilligoss, son of Kevin and Emily Hilligoss; Braden Kauffman, son of Rick and Juanita Kauffman; Kody Kornewald, son of Mindy Schmidt; and Clay Seal, son of Nathan and Adrienne Seal. Mr. Seal closed with this statement, "on behalf of the administration, coaching staff, teammates and the communities of Arthur, Lovington, Atwood and Hammond, we would like to thank the seniors and their families for all of their work and support over the past four years. We would also like to wish all of the seniors from Central A & m High School the best of luck in the future." The Knights baseball team won both of their games 10-0 over CGB and 17-1 over Tri-County. They also got to celebrate winning the Lincoln Prairie Conference regular season title.

ALAH SOFTBALL SENIOR NIGHT. On Thursday, May 11, prior to their last regular season softball game with Central A & M the four seniors and their parents were recognized for their contributions to their ALAH programs. From left to right: Kaci Beachy, granddaughter of Omer and Dorothy Beachy; Charley Condill, daughter of Mac and Ginny Condill; Alisha Frederick, daughter of Wes and Christy Frederick and Kailee Otto, daughter of Steve and Melissa Otto. ALAH HS Principal Steffanie Seegmiller handled the introductions and had this to say in closing, "on behalf of the administration, coaching staff, teammates and the communities of Arthur, Lovington, Atwood and Hammond, we would like to thank the seniors and their families for all of their work and support over the past four years. We would also like to wish all of the seniors from Central A & m High School the best of luck in the future." The Knights softball team won their game 9-2 over Central A & M.
