HERFF JONES

Cecilia Hardin

Cecilia is the daughter of Jennifer Hardin and Calvin Hardin.

While attending AHS she was a member of the National Art Honor Society for four years, participated in FCCLA for three years, Polar Plunge for two years and Drama Club and Student Council for one year. She gave blood three times at the school's blood drive and worked many concession stands. She also did photography for the school yearbook and helped with the Veteran's Day parade.

Cecilia used her creative talents to design the covers for the high school graduation programs for the class of 2022 and 2023. She also designed the covers for the eighth grade promotion program for 2022 and 2023 and for the 2022 yearbook.

She was president and historian for NAHS, president and vice president for FCCLA and was on the Honors List. She received third place in the Eric's Art Show, two honorable mentions and a first place in the Central Illinois Art Show, and first place in painting for Love of the Arts Show.

Following graduation, Cecilia plans to attend Eastern Illinois University to earn a Bachelors Degree in Art Education.

She said this about her favorite teacher, "Mr. Lugo inspired me to become an art teacher, and pushed me to do the best I could in all my work."

Her favorite memory from high school is staying in the art room to work on her paintings.

Outside of school Cecilia enjoys spending time drawing, painting, listening to music, photography, making jewelry and playing video games.
