

Season Ends for Knights Softball in Second Round of Regionals

The Knights advanced to the second round of regional play after defeating Cerro-Bement on Monday night in the first round hosted by Maroa-Forsyth. They faced the Unity Rockets on Wednesday evening and lost 2-4.

ALAH Defeated By Unity Rockets

The Knights got on the board in the first inning when Alisha Frederick grounded out, scoring one run.

Madison Schweighart took the loss for ALAH. The bulldog surrendered four runs on seven hits over six innings, striking out six.

Lindy Bates led the Rockets to victory in the circle. Bates allowed six hits and two runs over seven innings, striking out six and walking zero.

Charley Condill, Kailee Otto, Alisha Frederick, Mackenzie Condill, Anna Rawlins, and Layla Deel all had one hit to lead the team.

With Madison On The Mound, ALAH Shuts Out Cerro Gordo-Bement

Madison Schweighart threw a shutout to lead ALAH past CGB 15-0 in the first game of regionals last Monday.

Charley Condill led the Knights to victory by driving in four runs. She went 3-for-4 at the plate and drove in runs on a grand slam in the second inning.

ALAH opened up the scoring in the first inning, when Mackenzie Condill singled on the first pitch of the at bat, scoring one run.

The Knights tallied ten runs in the second inning with the offensive firepower led by Alisha Frederick, Kailee Otto, Anna Rawlins, and Charley Condill all driving in runs in the frame.

A single by Hunter Malone came in the second inning for the Broncos.

Schweighart was the winning pitcher for ALAH lasting four innings, allowing zero runs on one hit and striking Knights pitcher Madison Schweighart throws the ball she just fielded to first baseman Layla Deel for an out in the second inning of the home regional game on May 15. Madison allowed only one hit in the game.

ALAH senior Kailee Otto #33 goes in standing as she steals second base in the second inning of the Regional softball game with CGB. The Knights would send 15 batters to the plate in the inning and score 10 runs to lead 15-0 after two. That would be the final score after three and a half innings.

out five.

Throneburg took the loss for Cerro Gordo-Bement. The hurler surrendered 15 runs on ten hits over two innings, striking out two.

ALAH didn't commit a single error in the field, and they stole seven bases during the game as three players stole more than one. Rawlins led the way with two.

Malone led Cerro Gordo-Bement with one hit in two at bats.

In the home IHSA Regional softball game against Cerro Gordo Bement, ALAH's Mackenzie Condill lays down a bunt in the first inning. Mackenzie would beat the throw to first and also drive in her sister Charley who had reached first in her at bat. The Knights scored 5 runs in the first to take a 5-0 lead.

Charley Condill watches the ball she just hit sail into the outfield in the Regional softball game against CGB on May 15. The bases were loaded and Charley would also score after some throwing errors by the Lady Broncos defense. The Knights were to continue regional play on Tuesday, May 16 against Unity at Maroa-Forsyth.

Late Score Costs Knights The Game; 2023 Season Ends

Clay Seal, senior pitcher for the Knights delivers a pitch in the home Regional baseball game with Pana on May 15. Clay pitched six and a third innings, struck out 13 and walked just two. Unfortunately ALAH couldn't hold on to their lead and dropped the contest 8-7 in eight innings.

Monday's opening regional game against the Pana Panthers was a heartbreaker for the Knights as they lost the lead late in an 8-7 defeat.

The game was tied at seven with Pana batting in the top of the eighth when Eli Lindsay singled on the first pitch of the at bat, scoring one run.

ALAH collected nine hits and the Panthers had five in the high-scoring affair.

In the top of the seventh inning, Pana Panthers tied things up at seven scoring two runs.

Clay Seal was on the pitcher's mound for ALAH Knights. The pitcher surrendered five runs on one hit over six and a third innings, striking out 13. Will Hilligoss and Dalton Vanusdoll entered the game from the bullpen, throwing one inning and two-thirds of an inning respectively.

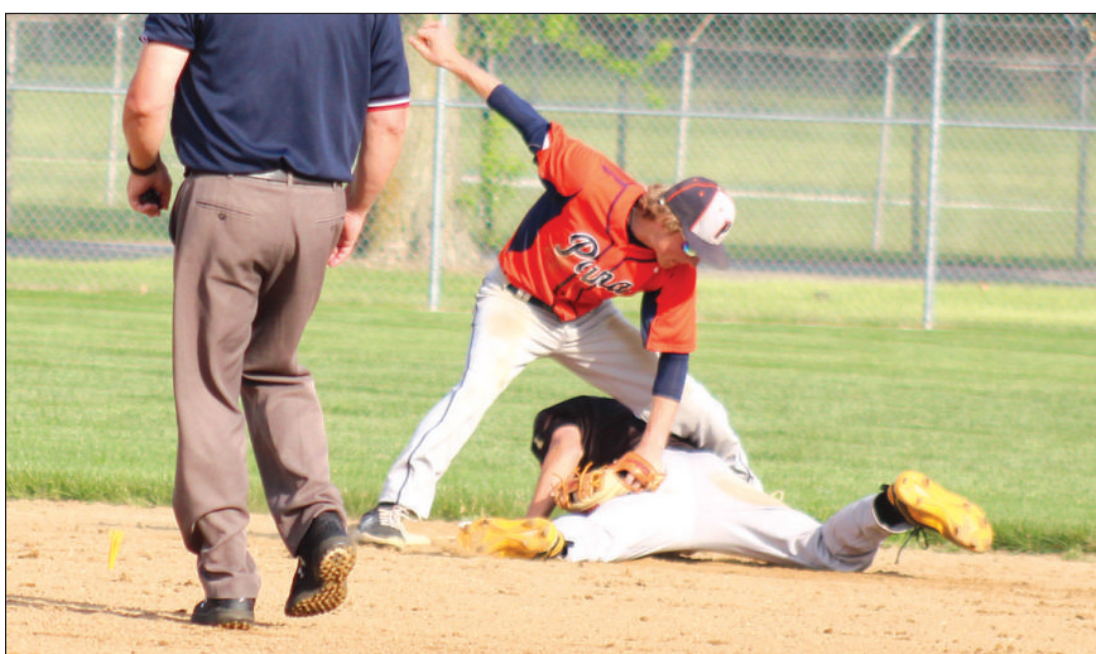

Hunter Grant launched one home run on the day in the fourth inning.

Braden Kauffman and Kody Kornewald each managed two hits to lead the team.

ALAH senior Kody Kornewald takes off from the batter's box for first base in the IHSA Regional baseball game with the Pana Panthers at home on Monday, May 15. Kody would get a single and go two for four at the plate in the game and also have 2 RBI.

#1 Will Hilligoss, a freshman on the Knights baseball team slides safely under the Pana player with one of his three steals in the regional game on May 15. The Knights gave up six unanswered runs combined in the sixth and seventh innings to drop the game 8-7 and finish their 2023 season with a 13-7 record.

Knights catcher Hunter Grant smiles as he crosses home plate after homering in the fourth inning of the regional game against Pana at home on May 15. Lucas Butcher was on base and scored also giving the Knights a 5-1 lead at the time. Hunter's teammates wait in the background to celebrate his home run.