

Mr. Peralta vs. Water Balloons

An Annual Tradition Continues!! Arthur Grade School Mr. Andrew Peralta continued his tradition of being the target for water balloons on the last day of school as an award for the top readers in his building. Here first grader Sirius Conlin fires a balloon through the fence at his principal.

AGS Principal Mr. Peralta cringes as he is splashed with a water balloon thrown by second grader Rowen Miller. The students were able to throw a water balloon for earning a Gold Badge in reading. Each classroom teacher set the criteria for the reading goals in their room.

TEACHERS GET IN ON THE ACT!! AGS Second grade teacher Vanessa Floyd rears back to throw a water balloon at her building principal, Mr. Peralta. A few of the teachers took advantage of the opportunity to help soak their principal on a very chilly morning!

AGS fifth grade teacher Roger Punches didn't bother with just a balloon to throw, he dumped the cooler of water that had held the balloons on Principal Peralta on the last day of school. The entire grade school thoroughly enjoyed watching Mr. Peralta get drenched. They also had a fun day planned with Kona Ice and inflatables!
