

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 2023

Brady Moore, ALAH High School Senior Class President gave the welcome speech at the 2023 Commencement ceremony on Friday, May 26. Brady is the son of Jenny and Jake Moore and will be heading to "Ole Miss" and majoring in Public Policy and Leadership.

Senior class members Xander Thompson, Miah Malin, Kylie Stutzman and Ash Davis-Kearns performed the musical number "Alright" at the Class of 2023 Graduation on May 26.

The Salutatorian Address was given by Charley Condill. Charley is the daughter of Mac and Ginny Condill and will be attending Millikin University to major in Art Therapy. She will also be continuing her athletic career playing both softball and volleyball.

Emma Edwards, ALAH Class of 2023 Valedictorian delivered her address to her fellow classmates and the very large crowd of family and friends in attendance at the graduation ceremony last Friday. Emma is the daughter of Brad and Crystal Edwards and plans to attend Eastern Illinois University and major in Nursing.

Regann Bowles receives her diploma from Arthur CUSD #305 school board member Monica Green at the 2023 ALAH Commencement Ceremony last Friday. Regann is the daughter of Ryan and Jami Bowles and will attend Eastern Illinois University to major in Business Marketing.

Arthur CUSD #305 Superintendent Shannon Cheek congratulates Lane Burton at the ALAH Class of 2023 Graduation on May 26. The son of Michael and Jane Burton plans to obtain his welding certification from Lake Land College and then enter the workforce.

Brady Moore Senior Class President, front center, directs his classmates in the turning of their tassels at the 2023 Commencement last Friday. With the tassel turning, the ALAH Class of 2023 officially became Arthur Lovington Atwood Hammond alumni!!